FOREWORD

The Kentucky Constitution requires each chamber of the General Assembly to keep a journal as a public accounting of daily legislative activity. The journal is the official record of action.

The Kentucky Revised Statutes require the Legislative Research Commission to compile, edit, correct, and publish the journals of each chamber. This is the House Journal for the Regular Session of the 2007 General Assembly.

Texts of bills, joint resolutions, and concurrent resolutions appear in the journal on the day of their first reading. Texts of simple resolutions appear on the day of either their first reading or adoption. Texts of committee amendments appear when they are reported out of committee and floor amendments are inserted at the end of the day on which they were filed. The appendices include a table of actions on bills and resolutions, a list of elected representatives, roll call votes, and a sponsor and subject index.

JoAnn Paulin, Marlene Rutherford, and Billie Gabbard prepared the House Journal for the 2007 Regular Session. The edited copy and appendices in this volume reflect the cooperative efforts of the LRC Staff.

- (3) A member of the board shall:
- (a) Be knowledgeable about collective bargaining;
- (b) Devote his or her full time to the duties of the board;
- (c) Hold no other public office; and
- (d) Allow no other responsibilities to interfere or conflict with his or her duties as a full-time member.
- No more than two (2) individuals belonging to the same political party shall serve on the board at the same time.
- (4) The Governor shall make the initial appointments to the board as follows: one (1) member shall be appointed to a term that expires July 15, 2009, one (1) member shall be appointed to a term that expires July 15, 2010 and one (1) member shall be appointed to a term that expires July 15, 2011. Subsequent members shall serve terms of four (4) years, which shall expire at four (4) year intervals from the original expiration date of the term. Board members may serve after the expiration date of the term but only until their successors are appointed and take office. Board members may begin service immediately upon appointment; however, if they are not confirmed by the Senate by the date of sine die adjournment of the next regular scheduled session of the General Assembly, the position becomes vacant and the Governor may not appoint that individual to a position on the board for a period of four (4) years from the day of rejection or adjournment by the Senate.
- (5) Any vacancy that occurs prior to the expiration of a term shall be filled by the Governor in the same manner as the initial appointment was made, and the new appointee shall serve only the remainder of the unexpired term or until a successor is appointed and takes office, whichever shall last occur.
- (6) The Governor shall appoint one (1) member to serve as chair for a term of two (2) years. The Governor may remove any member of the board, upon notice and public hearing, for neglect of duty or malfeasance in office, but for no other cause. A vacancy on the board does not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise all the powers of the board, and two (2) members of the board shall, at all times, constitute a quorum. The board shall have an official seal of which courts shall take judicial notice.
- (7) No later than December 31 of each year, the board shall make an annual report in writing to the Governor and to the General Assembly, reporting in detail the work it has done.
- (8) Compensation of the board members shall be at the rate of two hundred dollars ($200) per day for each board meeting attended, except that the chair shall receive a salary ten percent (10%) greater than other board members for the period he or she serves as chair. The chair and the members are eligible for reappointment. In addition to compensation, all members shall be reimbursed for their necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their work as members.

- (9) The board shall appoint an executive director and other employees that it finds necessary for the proper performance of its duties and may prescribe their duties. The board may hire its own legal advisor, who shall appear for and represent the board and its agents in all legal proceedings. The board may utilize regional, local, or other agencies, and utilize voluntary and uncompensated services as needed. The board may arrange with the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for the assistance of mediators, arbitrators, and other personnel that service makes available. The board shall appoint all employees on the basis of training, practical experience, education, and character. The board shall give special regard to the practical training and experience that employees have for the particular position involved. All full-time employees of the board except the executive director, the personal secretaries and assistants of the executive director, and the board shall hold classified positions as defined in KRS 18A.005.
- (10) The board shall select and assign examiners, hearing officers and other agents, with due regard to their impartiality, judicial temperament, and knowledge, to conduct hearings. The board shall notify all parties to a hearing of the name of the examiner, hearing officer, or agent designated to collect information, issue reports, and conduct the hearing.
- (11) The principal office of the board shall be in Frankfort, but it may meet and exercise any or all of its powers at any other place within the Commonwealth. The board may, by one (1) or more of its employees, or any agents or agencies it designates, conduct in any part of this Commonwealth any proceeding, hearing, investigation, inquiry, or election necessary to the performance of its functions, but no person so designated may later sit in determination of an appeal of the decision resulting from that action.
- (12) In addition to the powers granted and functions required under other provisions of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act, the board shall:
- (a) Create a Bureau of Mediation to perform the functions required in Sections 1 to 22 of this Act. The bureau shall also establish, after consulting representatives of public employee organizations and public employers, panels of qualified persons to be available to serve as arbitrators, mediators, and conciliators;
 - (b) Conduct studies of problems involved in representation and negotiation and make recommendations for legislation;
 - (c) Hold hearings required under Sections 1 to 22 of this Act and, for the purpose of the hearings and inquiries, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses and documents, take testimony and receive evidence, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents by the issuance of subpoenas, and delegate these powers to any member of the board or any attorney-trial examiner, hearing officer, or agent appointed by the board for the performance of its functions;
 - (d) Train representatives of public employee organizations and public employers in the rules and techniques of collective bargaining procedures;
 - (e) Make studies and analyses of, and act as a clearinghouse for information relating to, conditions of employment of public employees throughout the Commonwealth and nation and request assistance, services, and data from any public employee organization or public employer. Public employee organizations or public employers shall provide assistance, services, and data that will enable the board to carry out its functions and powers;
 - (f) Make available to public employee organizations, public employers, mediators, arbitrators, conciliators, and joint study committees statistical data relating to wages, benefits, and employment practices in public and private employment applicable to various localities and occupations to assist them in resolving issues in negotiations; and
 - (g) Adopt, amend, and rescind policies and procedures, promulgate administrative regulations under KRS Chapter 13A, and exercise other powers appropriate to carry out the provisions of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act.
- (13) Any subpoena, notice of hearing, or other process or notice of the board issued under this section may be served personally, by certified mail, or by leaving a copy at the principal office or personal residence of the respondent required to be served. A return, made and verified by the individual making the service and setting forth the manner of service, is proof of service, and a return post office receipt, when certified mail is used, is proof of service. All process in any court to which application is made may be served in the county in which the person required to be served resides or is found.
- (14) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 1 to 22 of this Act, final decisions or orders of the board may be appealed to the Franklin Circuit Court by any party of record in a case or controversy before the board. Notice of a final order or decision of the board to the interested parties shall contain a certification by the chair of the board that a certified transcript of the record of the proceedings before the board had been filed with the clerk of the court as an appeal to the court. For the purposes of this section, the board has standing to bring its final order properly before the Franklin Circuit Court.

SECTION 4. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

 - (c) Be represented by an employee organization;
 - (d) Bargain collectively with their public employer; and

- (2) Nothing in Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall prohibit public employers from electing to engage in collective bargaining, meet and confer discussions, or hold any other form of collective negotiations with public employees who are not eligible employees as defined in Section 2 of this Act.

SECTION 5. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) A public employer shall extend to an exclusive bargaining representative designated in Section 6 of this Act the right to represent exclusively their eligible employees in the appropriate bargaining unit and the right to unchallenged and exclusive representation for a period of not less than twelve (12) months following the date of certification and thereafter, if the public employer and the exclusive bargaining representative enter into an agreement, for a period of not more than four (4) years from the date of signing the agreement. For purposes of this section, an extension of an agreement shall not be construed to affect the expiration date of the original agreement.
- (2) A public employer shall bargain collectively with an exclusive bargaining representative designated under Section 6 of this Act for purposes of effectuating the provisions of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act. The obligation to bargain collectively does not mean that either party is compelled to agree to a proposal, nor does it require making a concession.
- (3) When the board notifies a public employer that it has certified an exclusive bargaining representative for the eligible employees in an appropriate bargaining unit of the public employer, the public employer shall designate a representative and promptly notify the board and the exclusive bargaining representative of his or her identity and address.
- (4) Upon certification, the exclusive bargaining representative shall designate a representative and promptly notify the board and the public employer of his or her identity and address.
- (5) The board or any party shall address to the appropriate designated representative all communications concerned with collective bargaining relationships under Sections 1 to 22 of this Act.
- (6) The designated representative of a party may sign agreements resulting from collective bargaining on behalf of his or her designator, subject to the procedures set forth in Sections 1 to 22 of this Act.
- (7) Upon notification by the board that an exclusive bargaining representative has been certified to represent the eligible employees of a public employer, the public employer shall deduct dues, upon written authorization of the employee, and fair share payments from the wages of all eligible employees not paying dues and remit those dues and fair share payments on a monthly basis to the exclusive bargaining representative.

SECTION 6. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) A public employee organization or a group of public employee organizations seeking to become the exclusive bargaining representative of all the eligible employees of a public employer in an appropriate bargaining unit for the purposes of collective bargaining shall:
 - (a) File a request with the public employer with a copy to the board for recognition as the exclusive bargaining representative of their eligible employees in a bargaining unit. In the request for recognition, the public employee organization shall describe the bargaining unit, allege that a majority of the eligible employees of the public employer in the bargaining unit wish to be represented by the public employee organization, and support the request with substantial evidence based on, and in accordance with, requirements prescribed by the board demonstrating that the majority of the eligible employees in a bargaining unit of the public employer wish to be represented by the public employee organization.
 - (b) Within eight (8) calendar days of the receipt of a request, the public employer shall either request an election under Section 9 of this Act, or take the following action:
 - 1. Notify the board of the receipt of a request for recognition; and
 - 2. Post notices in each facility at which eligible employees are employed, setting forth the description of the bargaining unit, name of the public employee organization requesting recognition, and date of the request for recognition, and advising eligible employees that objections to certification must be filed with the board not later than fifteen (15) calendar days following the date of the request for recognition.
- (2) The board shall certify the public employee organization filing the request for recognition within sixteen (16) calendar days following the filing of the request for recognition, unless by the fifteenth day following the filing of the request for recognition the board receives:
 - (a) A petition from the public employer requesting an election in accordance with Section 9 of this Act;
 - (b) Substantial evidence based on and in accordance with requirements prescribed by the board demonstrating that a majority of the eligible employees of the public employer do not wish to be represented by the public employee organization filing the request for recognition;

(c) Substantial evidence based on and in accordance with requirements prescribed by the board from another public employee organization demonstrating that at least ten percent (10%) of the eligible employees of the public employer wish to be represented by the other public employee organization; or

(d) Substantial evidence based on and in accordance with requirements prescribed by the board indicating that the proposed unit is not an appropriate unit according to Section 7 of this Act.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit a public employer to recognize, or the board to certify, a public employee organization as an exclusive bargaining representative of all the eligible employees of a public employer under Sections 1 to 22 of this Act if there is in effect a lawful written agreement, contract, or memorandum of understanding between the public employer and another public employee organization that, on the effective date of this Act, has been recognized by the public employer as the exclusive bargaining representative of any or all of the eligible employees of the public employer. The prohibition against recognition or certification shall be enforced for a maximum of four (4) years from the effective date of this Act or on the expiration of the collective bargaining or similar agreement in effect on the effective date of this Act, whichever first occurs.

SECTION 7. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) A bargaining unit of a public employer other than the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the Commonwealth's postsecondary education system as defined in KRS 164.001 shall be determined by the board. The board shall decide in each case, in order to assure public employees the fullest freedom in exercising the rights guaranteed under Sections 1 to 22 of this Act, the unit appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining, based on such factors as community of interest, wages, hours, and other working conditions of the employees involved; the history of collective bargaining; and the desire of the employees. Bargaining units shall be as large as is reasonable, and unnecessary fragmentation of bargaining units shall be avoided. Regardless of the establishment of multiple bargaining units for a public employer's employees, any election for representation by a collective bargaining representative shall receive the approval of a majority of the votes cast in an election in which all of the eligible employees are permitted to vote.

(2) A bargaining unit of employees of the Commonwealth, excluding employees of Kentucky's postsecondary education system as defined in KRS 164.001, shall be one (1) of the following:

- (a) Clerical, technical, and regulatory employees;
- (b) Administrative employees;
- (c) Labor and trades employees;
- (d) Employment and social services employees;
- (e) Health services employees;
- (f) State police officers;
- (g) Corrections, parole, and other law enforcement employees;
- (h) Professionals, specialists, scientific and related employees; or
- (i) Professional education employees.

(3) The board shall decide in each case the appropriate bargaining unit to which each job classification shall be assigned and the bargaining status of individual employees.

(4) Each institution that is part of Kentucky's postsecondary education system as defined in KRS 164.001 shall have a separate bargaining unit if a designation as an appropriate unit is consistent with the accreditation standards, or interpretations of those standards, governing postsecondary institutions or any department, school, or college of postsecondary institutions. For purposes of this section, any branch or regional campus of a postsecondary institution is part of that postsecondary institution. Notwithstanding any provision of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act to the contrary, the terms of any collective bargaining agreement relating to wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment of faculty at postsecondary institutions shall be limited to the base compensation and other terms of employment for faculty members and shall in no way limit additional compensation or benefits the institution may want to extend to any existing or new faculty member. A bargaining unit of employees in each institution of the postsecondary education system shall be one (1) of the following:

- (a) All eligible nonprofessional employees;
- (b) All eligible professional employees except faculty;
- (c) All eligible faculty; or
- (d) All eligible public safety employees including police officers.

SECTION 8. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

(1) If a public employer has granted recognition through a written contract, agreement, or memorandum of understanding to a public employee organization as the official or exclusive bargaining representative of any or all of the employees of the public employer, the status of that public employee organization shall be protected subject to the time restriction in subsection (1) of Section 5 and subsection (3) of Section 6 of this Act. A public employee organization recognized as the exclusive bargaining representative of all or some of the employees of a public employer shall be deemed certified as their exclusive bargaining representative until another public employee organization has been certified by the board as the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees, or until the board decertifies it in accordance with Section 9 of this Act.

- (2) Nothing in Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall be construed to permit a public employer to terminate or refuse to make payroll deductions of dues, fees, payments, or assessments on behalf of any exclusive bargaining representative, except that the deductions may not continue to be made after another public employee organization has been certified under Section 9 of this Act by the board, or if the exclusive bargaining representative has violated Section 16 or 17 of this Act. The public employer, when notified by the board that its employees have selected an exclusive bargaining representative, shall deduct dues, upon written authorization signed by the employee, and fair share payments from the wages of all eligible employees not paying dues and remit those dues or fair share payment on a monthly basis to the exclusive bargaining representative.
- (3) Nonofficial and nonexclusive recognition previously granted through an agreement or memorandum of understanding shall not preclude the board from:
 - (a) Determining an appropriate bargaining unit in accordance with Sections 1 to 22 of this Act;
 - (b) If necessary, adding classifications to the bargaining unit under an existing nonofficial and nonexclusive contract, agreement, or memorandum of understanding; and
 - (c) Holding a recognition-certification election to determine an exclusive representative for all additional employees deemed part of the appropriate unit.
- (4) Nothing in Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall be construed to permit a skilled craft unit to be altered if there is in effect a lawful written agreement, contract, or memorandum of understanding between the public employer and an employee organization for the term of the agreement, contract, or memorandum of understanding that, on the effective date of this Act, has been recognized by a public employer as the designated or exclusive representative of the employees in that recognized bargaining unit, or which by tradition, custom, practice, election, or negotiation has been the only employee organization representing employees in that bargaining unit.
- (5) The provisions of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall not preclude any nonprofit, voluntary, bona fide organization that, by tradition, custom, and practice, has engaged in processing of grievances for public employees before a political subdivision or civil service commission on or before the effective date of this Act, from providing the services it has previously offered on a voluntary basis or from receiving a voluntary checkoff of dues, unless the public employees involved are in a bargaining unit represented by an exclusive bargaining representative.

SECTION 9. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) When a petition is filed, in accordance with requirements prescribed by the board:
 - (a) By any eligible employee or group of eligible employees, or any individual or public employee organization acting in their behalf, alleging that at least thirty percent (30%) of the eligible employees of the public employer wish to be represented for collective bargaining by an exclusive representative, or asserting that the designated official or exclusive bargaining representative is no longer the representative of at least thirty percent (30%) of the eligible employees of an appropriate unit and supported by thirty percent (30%) of the eligible employees in that unit, the board shall investigate the petition, and if it has reasonable cause to believe that a question of representation exists, the board shall provide for an appropriate hearing upon due notice to the parties; or
 - (b) By the employer alleging that one (1) or more public employee organizations have presented to it a claim to be recognized as the exclusive bargaining representative in an appropriate unit, the board shall investigate the petition, and if it has reasonable cause to believe that a question of representation exists, the board shall provide for an appropriate hearing upon due notice to the parties.
- (2) If the board finds upon the record of a hearing that a question of representation exists, or if the public employer requests an election in accordance with Section 6 of this Act, the board shall direct an election by secret ballot by on-site balloting, mail balloting, or a combination of the two. The board shall certify the results of the ballot.
- (3) Only the names of those employee organizations designated by more than ten percent (10%) of the employees in the unit found to be appropriate may be placed on the ballot. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the waiving of hearings by stipulation, in conformity with requirement of the board, for the purpose of a consent election.
- (4) The board shall conduct representation elections at times and places selected by the board subject to the following:
 - (a) The board shall give written notice of the time and place of an election at least twenty-two (22) calendar days before the election;
 - (b) The board shall establish procedures concerning the conduct of any election including, but not limited to, procedures to guarantee the secrecy of the ballot;
 - (c) The board shall include on the ballot a choice of "No Representation," except in runoff elections where two (2) employee organizations have received sufficient votes to have a runoff election as provided in paragraph (d) of this subsection;

- (d) In an election where there are more than two (2) choices and none of the choices on the ballot receives the support of a majority of the valid votes cast, the board shall within eight (8) calendar days conduct a runoff election. In that case, the ballot shall provide for a selection between the two (2) choices or parties receiving the highest and the second highest number of ballots cast in the election;
- (e) The board shall certify the public employee organization that receives the votes of a majority of the valid ballots cast in an election as the exclusive bargaining representative; and
- (f) The board may not conduct an election under this section in any appropriate bargaining unit where it has certified an election within the preceding twelve (12) month period, nor during the term of any lawful collective bargaining agreement between a public employer and an exclusive bargaining representative.
- (5) Petitions for elections may be filed with the board no sooner than one hundred twenty (120) calendar days or later than ninety (90) calendar days before the expiration date of any collective bargaining agreement, or after the expiration date, unless the public employer and exclusive bargaining representative enter into a new written agreement.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, extensions of agreements do not affect the expiration date of the original agreement.

SECTION 10. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) All matters pertaining to wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment and the continuation, modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement are subject to collective bargaining between the public employer and the exclusive bargaining representative.
- (2) The conduct and grading of classified service examinations provided to prospective members of the classified service under KRS Chapter 18A, rating of candidates, appointment of nonclassified personnel, establishment of eligible lists from the examinations, and original appointments from the eligible lists shall not be subjects for collective bargaining on behalf of public and state employees. In no event shall results of negotiations diminish any rights and responsibilities of public employees in state or local merit law.
- (3) Subject to the collective bargaining obligation established by subsection (1) of this section and all applicable laws and administrative regulations, each public employer shall have the exclusive right and responsibility to:
 - (a) Determine matters of inherent managerial policy that include, but are not limited to, areas of discretion or policy such as the functions and programs of the public employer, standards of services, its overall budget, utilization of technology, and organizational structure;
 - (b) Direct, supervise, evaluate, or hire employees;

 - (e) Suspend, discipline, or discharge for just cause, or lay off, transfer, assign, schedule, promote, demote, or retain employees;
 - (f) Determine the adequacy of the workforce;
 - (g) Determine the overall mission of the employer as a unit of government;
 - (h) Effectively manage the workforce;
 - (i) Take actions to carry out the mission of the public employer as a governmental unit;
 - (j) Expend funds in compliance with its budget; and
 - (k) Perform other acts relative to the public employer's responsibility as may be set forth in a collective bargaining agreement.
- (4) The public employer is not required to bargain on subjects reserved to the management and direction of the governmental unit except those that affect wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment, and the continuation, modification, or deletion of an existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement. The public employer may, at its option, in the interest of improving the delivery of public services, enter into an agreement with an exclusive bargaining representative concerning the matters itemized under subsection (3) of this section.

SECTION 11. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) The parties to any collective bargaining agreement under Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall reduce the agreement to writing, which the parties shall execute in order for it to be effective.
- (2) The agreement shall contain a provision that provides for a grievance procedure that shall culminate with final and binding arbitration of unresolved grievances, and disputed interpretations of agreements, and that is valid and enforceable under its terms when entered into in accordance with Sections 1 to 22 of this Act. A public employee may file a grievance based on the collective bargaining agreement in accordance with subsection (1)(e) of Section 4 of this Act, but only the exclusive bargaining representative may take a grievance to final and binding arbitration. Either party to the agreement may bring suits for enforcement of an award by an arbitrator in the Circuit Court of any county in which a party resides or transacts business.
- (3) The agreement shall authorize the public employer to deduct periodic dues, initiation fees, and assessments of members of the exclusive bargaining representative and its affiliated organizations upon presentation of a written deduction authorization signed by the employee.

- (4) The agreement may not require any employee to become a member of the exclusive bargaining representative. The agreement shall contain a provision that requires as a condition of employment that the eligible employees in the unit who are not members of the exclusive bargaining representative pay to the exclusive bargaining representative and its affiliated organization a fair share payment. The fair share payments shall not exceed dues paid by members of the public employee organization who are in the same bargaining unit. The fair share payment shall be equal to the membership dues that members of the exclusive bargaining representative are required to pay to the representative and its affiliated organization. Employees who are not members of the exclusive bargaining representative and who object to the payment of a fee equal to dues may obtain a reduction in the fair share payment reflecting the percentage of membership dues that equal the percentage of expenditures incurred by the exclusive bargaining representative and its affiliated organizations for activities other than collective bargaining, grievance adjustment, contract administration, and related activities that lawfully may be charged to objecting nonmember employees. The deduction of a fair share payment by the public employer from the payroll check of the employee and its payment to the public employee organization is automatic and does not require the written authorization of the employee.
- (5) Any public employee organization representing public employees in accordance with Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall prescribe an internal procedure to determine a rebate of any excessive fair share payment, if any, for nonmembers that conforms to federal law, provided nonmembers make a timely demand on the employee organization for a determination of the fairness of the fair share payment within twenty-nine (29) calendar days of the date of the request. The determination of the amount of the rebate is conclusive on the parties except that the nonmember employee may file a challenge to the determination with the board within twenty-nine (29) calendar days of date of the determination. The board shall review the rebate determination and decide whether it was in conformity with federal law. At a minimum, the internal rebate procedure shall provide for a rebate of expenditures in support of partisan politics or ideological causes not germane to the work of the public employee organization and its affiliated organization in the realm of collective bargaining, grievance adjustment, contract administration, or related matters that lawfully may be charged to objecting nonmember employees.
- (6) Any public employee who has a sincerely held religious objection to joining or financially supporting an employee organization shall not be required to join or financially support a public employee organization as a condition of employment. Upon submission of proper proof of religious conviction to the board, the board shall declare the employee exempt from becoming a member of or financially supporting a public employee organization. The employee shall be required, in lieu of the fair share payment, to contribute over and above any amount that the employee has historically contributed to the fund, an amount of money equal to the fair share payment to a nonreligious charitable fund exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code that is chosen by the employee from a list of three (3) or more funds designated in the applicable collective bargaining agreement by the public employer and the public employee organization to which the employee would otherwise be required to pay the fair share payment. If the agreement fails to designate nonreligious charitable funds, the employee may choose a fund meeting the same criteria. The employee shall furnish to the public employee organization written receipts evidencing the payment, and failure to make the payment or furnish the receipts shall be cause for and require the public employer to deduct any cash amounts from the employee's wages and remit these amounts to the charitable fund.
- (7) No public employer shall agree to a provision requiring that a public employee become a member of a public employee organization as a condition of securing or retaining employment.
- (8) No agreement shall contain an expiration date that is later than four (4) years from the date of execution. The parties may extend any agreement, but the extensions do not affect the expiration date of the original agreement.
- (9) Any collective bargaining agreement with a public employer, except the Commonwealth of Kentucky, whose chief executive is elected shall not extend beyond June 30 of the year after the chief executive is elected in a regularly scheduled election.

SECTION 12. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) A collective bargaining agreement between a public employer and an official or exclusive bargaining representative entered into according to Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall govern the wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment of the eligible public employees of the public employer. Where no agreement exists or where an agreement makes no specification about a matter, the public employer and public employees are subject to all applicable state or local laws or ordinances pertaining to the wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment for public employees. Laws pertaining to civil rights, affirmative action, unemployment compensation, workers' compensation, the retirement of public employees, residency requirements, the minimum educational requirements contained in the Kentucky Revised Statutes pertaining to public education, including the requirement of certification of public school teachers, shall prevail over conflicting provisions of agreements between public employee organizations and public employers. The laws pertaining to minimum wages, overtime pay, rest periods, and occupational safety and health shall prevail over any conflicting provisions of the agreements if the terms of the agreement contain benefits or standards that are less than those required by law. The provisions of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall prevail over any and all other conflicting laws, resolutions, and provisions, present or future, except as otherwise specified in the provisions of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act or as otherwise specified by the General Assembly. Nothing in this section shall prohibit or shall be construed to invalidate the provisions of an agreement establishing supplemental workers' compensation or unemployment compensation benefits or exceeding minimum requirements contained in the Kentucky Revised Statutes pertaining to public education or the minimum standards promulgated by the Kentucky Board of Education. Notwithstanding any provision of state law to the contrary, personnel administrators of public employees shall cooperate with and provide to public employee organizations appropriate identifying information of public employees including names and addresses to be used for the sole purpose of organization and representation activities. The information shall be provided to a public employee organization no later than fourteen (14) days following a finding by the board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a question of representation exists under Section 9 of this Act. Public employee organizations shall protect the confidentiality of employee identifying information and shall not provide this information to any other entity for any other purpose.

- (2) Any collective bargaining agreement negotiated under Sections 1 to 22 of this Act shall be divided into two (2) sections. One section shall contain the provisions over which the chief executive officer of the public employer has complete jurisdiction and authority and the second section shall contain the provisions that require the approval of the governing body of the public employer. The governing body may not assume authority that normally resides within the executive authority for the purpose of exerting undue influence over the outcome of collective bargaining negotiations.
- (3) The chief executive officer of a public employer may enter into an agreement with an authorized exclusive bargaining representative of the public employer's employees regarding those matters over which the chief executive has jurisdiction without the approval of the governing body of the public employer.
- (4) The chief executive officer of a public employer may negotiate wages, benefits, and other conditions of employment including changes in merit systems or personnel policies or other laws, administrative regulations, rules, or policies previously adopted by the governing body of the public employer and may submit them to the governing body, which may approve or reject the proposed changes. If presented by the chief executive officer as a package, the proposals shall be accepted or rejected as a whole. If they are presented as separate elements, each element shall be accepted or rejected as a whole.
- (5) While collective bargaining negotiations are being conducted, the governing body shall not conduct negotiations with an exclusive bargaining representative or any of its members except through the chief executive officer of the public employer, and the exclusive bargaining representative shall not conduct any negotiations with the governing body of a public employer or any member of the governing body except through the chief executive officer of the public employer.
- (6) While collective bargaining negotiations are being conducted, the chief executive officer or the governing body of a public employer or any member of that governing body may not conduct any negotiations with the members of a public employee organization.
- (7) The chief executive officer of the public employer shall submit to the appropriate governing body the applicable section of any proposed agreement, including agreements reached at the conclusion of the process described in Section 16 of this Act, within ten (10) calendar days after the date on which the parties finalize the agreement, unless otherwise specified, but if the appropriate governing body is not in session at the time, then on the first day it convenes. The governing body shall approve or disapprove funding requests related to the agreement or any other changes in the law required to implement the agreement but may not change, alter, or modify the agreement. The agreement signed by the chief executive officer shall be binding as to its terms relative to the authority of the chief executive officer, and shall not be submitted to the governing body for approval. If the governing body rejects that portion of the proposed agreement submitted to it by the chief executive officer, the exclusive bargaining representative may reopen that portion of the agreement that was rejected by the governing body.
- (8) If any or all of the employees of the government of the Commonwealth under the supervision of the Governor or any other statewide elected constitutional officer have an exclusive bargaining representative certified by the board as the exclusive bargaining representative of the eligible employees under the elected official's supervision, the elected official shall recognize the exclusive bargaining representative as the exclusive bargaining agent for those public employees. The elected official shall negotiate in good faith with the exclusive bargaining representative and if an agreement is reached, the elected official shall sign the agreement, which shall be binding among the parties relative to the authority of the Governor or other elected constitutional officer. The Governor or other statewide elected constitutional officer is authorized to sign and execute any collective bargaining agreement reached with respect to state government employees under the elected official's control prior to the 2009 Regular Session of the General Assembly that does not require supplemental appropriations with respect to personnel or changes in state law.
- (9) When the matters about which there is agreement are reduced to writing and approved by the exclusive bargaining representative and the governing body, the agreement is binding upon the governing body, the public employer, the exclusive bargaining representative, and the public employees covered by the agreement and their successors.

SECTION 13. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) It is an unfair labor practice for a public employer to:
 - (a) Interfere with, restrain, or coerce eligible public employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in Section 1 to 22 of this Act;

- (b) Initiate, create, dominate, or interfere with the formation or administration of any public employee organization, or contribute financial or other support to it;
 - (c) Discriminate in regard to hiring or tenure of employment or any term or condition of employment on the basis of the exercise of rights guaranteed by Sections 1 to 22 of this Act;
 - (d) Discharge or otherwise discriminate against an employee because he or she has filed charges or given testimony under Sections 1 to 22 of this Act;
 - (e) Refuse to bargain collectively with the exclusive bargaining representative of the public employer's employees;
 - (f) Establish a pattern or practice of repeated failures to timely process grievances and requests for arbitration of grievances;
 - (g) Lock out or otherwise prevent employees from performing their regularly assigned duties to bring pressure on the employees or a public employee organization to compromise or capitulate to the employer's terms regarding a labor relations dispute; or
 - (h) Cause or attempt to cause a public employee organization, its agents, or representatives to violate subsection (2) of this section.
- (2) It is an unfair labor practice for a public employee organization, its agents or representatives, or public employees to:
- (a) Restrain or coerce employees in the exercise of the rights guaranteed in Sections 1 to 22 of this Act; except that this section shall not be construed to impair the right of a public employee organization to prescribe its own rules with respect to acquisition or retention of membership, or in the selection of a representative for the purpose of collective bargaining or the adjustment of grievances;
 - (b) Cause or attempt to cause an employer to violate subsection (1) of this section;
 - (c) Refuse to bargain collectively with a public employer if the employee organization is certified as the exclusive bargaining representative of the public employees in a bargaining unit; except that an employee organization may, at any time, disclaim interest in representing the employees;
 - (d) Call, institute, maintain, or conduct a boycott against any public employer, or picket any place of business of a public employer because of a jurisdictional work dispute;
 - (e) Threaten, coerce, induce, or encourage any individual employed by any person to engage in a strike in violation of Section 17 of this Act;
 - (f) Refuse to handle goods or perform services, threaten, coerce, or restrain any person in an effort to force or require any person to cease dealing with or doing business with any other person;
 - (g) Force or require a public employer to recognize for representation purposes a public employee organization not certified by the board, except as otherwise provided in Section 6 of this Act;
 - (h) Fail to fairly represent all eligible public employees in a bargaining unit; except that a labor organization or its agents shall commit an unfair labor practice under this paragraph in duty of fair representation cases only by intentional misconduct in representing employees under Section 1 to 22 of this Act;
 - (i) Threaten, coerce, induce, or encourage any individual in connection with a labor relations dispute to picket or engage in picketing of the residence or a place of private employment of any public official or representative of a public official; or
 - (j) Engage in any picketing without giving written notice, including the date and time the picketing will commence, to the public employer and to the board not less than one (1) day prior to the action; and, once the notice is given, the parties may extend it by the written agreement of both.
- (3) The determination by the board or any court that a public official or employee has committed any of the acts prohibited by subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be made the basis of any charge for the removal from public office or the termination of employment or disciplinary acts against an employee except as provided in Section 14 of this Act, nor shall the officer or employee be subject to any suit for damages based on a determination by the board; however, nothing in this section shall prevent any party to a collective bargaining agreement from seeking enforcement of any law or the assessment of damages for a violation of the agreement against the other party to the agreement.
- (4) As to jurisdictional work disputes, the board shall hear and determine the dispute unless, within eight (8) calendar days, the parties to the dispute submit to the board satisfactory evidence that they have adjusted, or agreed upon the method for the voluntary adjustment of the dispute.
- (5) Expressing any view, argument, or opinion, or dissemination of them, whether in written, printed, graphic, or visual form, shall not constitute or be evidence of an unfair labor practice as defined in this section, if the expression contains no threat of reprisal or force or promise of benefit.
- (6) Allegations of unfair labor practices under subsection (1)(e) or subsection (2)(c) of this section or allegations of unfair labor practices during the settlement procedures set forth in Section 16 of this Act shall receive priority by the board.
- SECTION 14. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:
- (1) A violation of Section 13 of this Act is an unfair labor practice remediable by the board as specified in this section.

- (2) If a charge is filed with the board alleging that an unfair labor practice has been or is being committed, the board or its designated agent shall investigate the charge. If the board has probable cause for believing that a violation has occurred, the board shall issue a complaint stating the charge and shall conduct a hearing concerning the charge. The board shall cause the complaint to be served upon the charged party that shall contain a notice of the time at which the hearing on the complaint will be held before either the board, a board member, or a hearing officer not less than eight (8) calendar days after the service of the complaint. The board may not issue a notice of hearing based upon any unfair labor practice occurring more than ninety (90) calendar days prior to the filing of the charge with the board, unless the person aggrieved is prevented from filing the charge by reason of service in the Armed Forces, in which event the ninety (90) calendar day period shall be computed from the day of his or her discharge. If the board dismisses a complaint as frivolous, it may assess costs to the complainant according to its standards governing frivolous matters, and for that purpose, the board shall adopt a policy defining the standards by which the board will declare a complaint to be frivolous and the costs that will be assessed accordingly.
- (3) The board, board member, or hearing officer shall hold a hearing on the charge within twenty-two (22) calendar days after service of the complaint. The board may amend a complaint, upon receipt of a notice from the charging party, at any time prior to the close of the hearing, and the charged party shall, within eight (8) calendar days from receipt of the complaint or amendment to the complaint, file an answer to the complaint or amendment to the complaint. The agents of the board and the person charged are parties and may appear or otherwise present evidence at the hearing. At the discretion of the board, board member, or hearing officer, any interested party may intervene and present evidence at the hearing. The board, board member, or hearing officer shall be bound by the Kentucky Rules of Evidence.
- (4) A hearing officer who conducts the hearing shall reduce the evidence taken to writing and file it with the board. The hearing officer may thereafter take further evidence or hear further argument if notice is given to all interested parties. The hearing officer or board member shall issue to the parties a proposed decision, together with a recommended order, and file it with the board. If the parties file no exceptions within twenty-two (22) calendar days after service of the proposed decision, the recommended order shall become the order of the board effective as prescribed in the recommended order. If the parties file exceptions to the proposed report, the board shall determine whether substantial issues have been raised. The board may rescind or modify the proposed order of the hearing officer; however, if the board determines that the exceptions do not raise substantial issues of fact or law, it may refuse to grant review, and the recommended order shall become effective as it prescribed.
- (5) If upon the preponderance of the evidence taken the board believes that any person named in the complaint has engaged in any unfair labor practice, the board shall state its findings of fact and issue and cause to be served on the person an order requiring that he or she cease and desist from these unfair labor practices, and take affirmative action, including reinstatement of employees with or without back pay, and the suspension from employment or levy of a reasonable fine upon an employee, public employer, or official of any public employer as will effectuate the policies of Section 1 to 22 of this Act. If upon a preponderance of the evidence taken, the board believes that the person named in the complaint has not engaged in an unfair labor practice it shall state its findings of fact and issue an order dismissing the complaint.
- (6) In cases where the discharge of a public employee is at issue, the board may order the public employer to reinstate the public employee and further may order either the public employer or the public employee organization, depending on who was responsible for the unfair labor practice, to make payment of back pay to the public employee as the board determines. No order of the board shall require the reinstatement of any individual as an employee who has been suspended or discharged, or require the payment to him or her of any back pay, if the suspension or discharge was for just cause not related to rights provided in Section 4 of this Act and if the procedure contained in the collective bargaining agreement governing suspension or discharge was followed. The order of the board may require the party against whom the order is issued to make periodic reports showing the extent to which he or she has complied with the order.
- (7) Whenever a complaint alleges that a person has engaged in an unfair labor practice and that the complainant will suffer substantial and irreparable injury if not granted temporary relief, the board may petition the Circuit Court for appropriate injunctive relief pending the final adjudication of the matter by the board. The board may at any time upon reasonable notice, and in a manner it considers proper, modify or set aside, in whole or in part, any finding or order made or issued by it.

SECTION 15. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) The board or complaining party may petition the Circuit Court for enforcement of the board's order and for appropriate temporary relief or restraining order. The board shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding, including the pleadings and evidence upon which the order was entered and the findings and order of the board. When the board petitions the court, the complaining party may intervene in the case as a matter of right. Upon the filing, the court shall cause notice of the filing to be served upon the person charged with committing the unfair labor practice.
- (2) The findings of the board as to the facts, if supported by substantial evidence, on the record considered as a whole, are conclusive. If either party applies to the court for leave to adduce additional evidence and shows to the satisfaction of the court that the additional evidence is material and that there exist reasonable grounds for the failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the board, its member, or agent, the court may order the board, or a board member or agent of the board, to take the additional evidence, and make it a part of the transcript. The board may modify its findings as to the facts, or make new findings, by reason of additional evidence taken and filed, and it shall file the modified or new findings, which, if supported by the evidence, are conclusive, and the board shall file its recommendations, if any, for modifying or setting aside its original order.

- (3) Any person aggrieved by any final order of the board granting or denying, in whole or in part, the relief sought may appeal to Circuit Court by filing in the Circuit Court a notice of appeal setting forth the order appealed from and the grounds of appeal. The court shall cause a copy of the notice to be served upon the board. Within fifteen (15) calendar days after the court receives a notice of appeal, the board shall file in the court a transcript of the entire record in the proceeding, certified by the board, including the pleadings and evidence upon which the order was based.
- (4) The Circuit Court has exclusive jurisdiction to grant temporary relief or a restraining order it considers proper, and to make and enter a decree enforcing, modifying, and enforcing as so modified, or setting aside in whole or in part an order of the board. Upon the filing of any petition, the Circuit Court shall cause notice to be served upon the parties and may grant temporary relief or a restraining order it considers just and proper.
- (5) The commencement of proceedings under this section does not, unless specifically ordered by the court, operate as a stay of the board order.
- (6) The Circuit Court in the county in which the alleged unfair labor practice has occurred, or in which a person charged with committing an unfair labor practice resides or transacts business, shall have jurisdiction over the allegations of an unfair labor practice. The Circuit Court in the county in which a public employee organization maintains its principal office shall be deemed to have jurisdiction of the public employee organization. The service of legal process upon an officer or agent shall constitute service upon the public employee organization.

SECTION 16. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) The procedures contained in this section shall govern settlement of disputes between an exclusive bargaining representative and a public employer concerning termination or modification of an existing collective bargaining agreement, negotiation of a successor agreement, negotiation of an initial agreement, or resolution of a disagreement arising under the terms of an agreement.
- (2) If a collective bargaining agreement is in effect, any public employer or exclusive bargaining representative desiring to terminate or modify the existing agreement, or to negotiate a successor collective bargaining agreement, shall:
 - (a) Serve written notice upon the other party of the proposed termination or modification of an existing agreement, or negotiation of a successor agreement. The party shall serve the notice not less than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the expiration date of the existing agreement or, in the event the existing collective bargaining agreement does not contain an expiration date, not less than sixty (60) calendar days prior to the time it is proposed to make the termination or modification, or to make effective a successor agreement;
 - (b) Offer to bargain collectively with the other party for the purpose of modifying or terminating any existing agreement or negotiating a successor agreement; and
 - (c) Notify the board of the offer by serving upon the board a copy of the written notice to the other party and a copy of the existing collective bargaining agreement.
- (3) In the case of initial negotiations between a public employer, other than the Commonwealth, and an authorized exclusive bargaining representative, where a collective bargaining agreement has not been in effect between the parties, any party may serve notice upon the board and the other party setting forth the names and addresses of the parties and offering to meet, for a period of sixty (60) calendar days, with the other party for the purpose of negotiating a collective bargaining agreement.
- (4) Upon receipt of the notice, the parties shall begin to bargain collectively.
- (5) In the event the parties are unable to reach an agreement, they may submit, at any time after fifteen (15) calendar days from the beginning of the collective bargaining process, a request for mediation to the board. The mediator shall provide services to the parties for thirty (30) calendar days. Upon expiration of thirty (30) calendar days, or if the mediator determines and informs the parties that mediation services are no longer helpful prior to that deadline, either party may submit to the board a request for arbitration of the unresolved issues, provided that the parties by mutual agreement may utilize any other dispute settlement procedure to which they agree.
- (6) If properly submitted in accordance with subsection (5) of this section, the board shall submit the matter to an arbitrator in accordance with subsection (7) of this section. The board shall provide the parties with a list of five (5) qualified arbitrators, and the parties shall select a single arbitrator from the list by agreement or by the alternate striking of names. If the parties do not agree upon or select an arbitrator within five (5) calendar days after receiving the list of arbitrators from the board, the board shall on the sixth calendar day appoint an arbitrator from the list provided to the parties.
- (7) In accordance with this subsection, the arbitrator shall determine the facts in dispute and the fairness of each party's position and, within thirty (30) calendar days after his or her appointment, issue a decision that includes findings of fact and recommendations for the resolution of the dispute.

- (a) The arbitrator shall conduct hearings in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the board. The arbitrator shall establish a time and place for the hearing within the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth. At least five (5) calendar days before the hearing, each party shall submit to the arbitrator, to the opposing party, and to the board a written report summarizing the unresolved issues, the parties' final offer as to the issues, and the rationale for that position;
- (b) Upon request by the arbitrator, the board shall issue subpoenas for the hearing;
- (c) The arbitrator may administer oaths, shall hear testimony from the parties, and shall compile a written record of all testimony presented at the hearing;
- (d) Following a hearing or hearings adequate to reveal the facts, the arbitrator shall determine the fair resolution of each issue in dispute taking into consideration the following:
 - 1. Past collectively bargained agreements, if any, between the parties;
 - 2. Comparison of the issues relative to the employees in the bargaining unit involved with those issues related to other public and private employees doing comparable work, giving consideration to factors peculiar to the area and classification involved;
 - 3. The interests and welfare of the public, the ability of the public employer to finance and administer the issues proposed, and the effect of the adjustments on the normal standard of public service;
 - 4. The lawful authority of the public employer;
 - 5. The stipulations of the parties; and
 - 6. Other factors, not confined to those listed in this paragraph, that are normally or traditionally taken into consideration in the determination of the issues submitted to settlement through collective bargaining, mediation, or other impasse resolution procedures in public service or in private employment.
- (8) Based on the issues and evidence presented, the arbitrator shall issue a written decision that includes findings of fact and recommendations for the resolution of the dispute, and provide a true copy to the parties and the board. The arbitrator's decision also shall be released to the public.
- (9) The recommendations of the arbitrator shall be deemed approved in their entirety by the parties unless, within thirty (30) calendar days after receiving the arbitrator's decision, the exclusive bargaining representative or the governing body of the public employer notifies the other party and the board that it has voted to reject one or more of the arbitrator's recommendations. This notice shall include a statement of the reasons for the rejection.
- (10) Before voting to reject any of the recommendations of the arbitrator, the governing body or a duly authorized committee shall conduct a public hearing at which the exclusive bargaining representative and representative of the public employer shall be required to explain their positions with respect to the recommendations of the arbitrator.
- (11) Thereafter, the governing body shall vote, within thirty (30) calendar days of the release of the arbitrator's decision, to accept or reject the recommendations included in the arbitrator's decision. If the appropriate legislative body is not in session at the time, then the submission shall be within fourteen (14) calendar days after it convenes. As required by subsection (9) of this section, if the governing body votes to reject any of the arbitrator's recommendations, it shall be required to provide the exclusive bargaining representative and the public with written reasons for its rejection.
- (12) Within ten (10) calendar days after receiving a notice of rejection, the other party shall submit to the board and the rejecting party a notice indicating whether the other party has changed its previous position with regard to any of the arbitrator's recommendations.
- (13) The parties shall reduce to writing an agreement that includes all matters agreed to by the parties in collective bargaining and all of the recommendations of the arbitrator that have not been rejected by either party. This agreement shall govern the wages, hours, and terms and conditions of employment of the affected employees with regard to all matters covered by the agreement. With regard to any unresolved issues, the status quo as reflected in the prior collective bargaining agreement or the public employer's policies and practice shall remain in effect until the parties resolve those issues, provided that the public employer may, with written agreement of the exclusive bargaining representative, implement in whole or in part its last, best offer with regard to one or more of the unresolved issues.
- (14) The parties shall bear equally the cost of the mediation and arbitration procedure.
- (15) Mediators and arbitrators appointed under this section shall be residents of the Commonwealth.
- (16) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the parties, at any time, from voluntarily agreeing to submit any or all of the issues in dispute to any other alternative dispute settlement procedure.
- (17) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a party from seeking enforcement of a collective bargaining agreement in accordance with subsection (2) of Section 11 of this Act.
- (18) The board may promulgate administrative regulations in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A to carry out the provisions of Sections 1 to 22 of this Act.

SECTION 17. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 336 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) No public employee or public employee organization may participate in a strike, as defined in Section 2 of this Act, against a public employer, or instigate or support in any manner, a strike. It is unlawful for a public employee or exclusive bargaining representative to directly or indirectly induce, instigate, encourage, authorize, ratify, or participate in any of the conduct prohibited by this section. A public employer may not authorize, consent to, or condone a strike, and may not pay or agree to compensate a public employee for any time that a public employee participates in a strike. A public employer may not pay or agree to pay any increase in compensation or benefits to, or improve the conditions of employment for, any public employee in response to or as a result of a violation of this section. A public employer may not negotiate or bargain with an exclusive bargaining representative whose members are on strike. Any violation of this section shall subject the violator to any or all of the following penalties:

- (a) In the case of a public employee organization determined by the board to have organized or instigated a strike, suspension or revocation of the organization's certification as the exclusive bargaining representative for the public employees, revocation of the right of the public employee organization to have the public employer deduct dues and fair share payments from the compensation of public employees for one (1) year, and fines up to twenty-five percent (25%) of the total dues and fair share payment receipts of the public employee organization for one (1) year;
- (b) In the case of a public employee, the employee shall not be paid for any day the employee is determined by the board to have participated in a strike. In addition, the public employee shall be assessed a fine in an amount equal to the employee's daily compensation for each day the employee is determined by the board to have been on strike. If the board determines that a public employee encouraged other employees to participate in a strike or otherwise precipitated or attempted to precipitate a strike, the public employee shall be terminated;
- (c) In the case of an employee or official of a public employee organization determined by the board to have instigated, encouraged, or otherwise promoted any strike as defined under Section 2 of this Act, the employee shall be terminated or reassigned to duties not related to representing the subject public employees, and the employee shall be ineligible for reinstatement to employment with or for the subject public employees for up to one (1) year from the date the violation first occurs;

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 342.320 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) All fees of attorneys and physicians, and all charges of hospitals under this chapter, shall be subject to the approval of an administrative law judge pursuant to the statutes and administrative regulations.
- (2) In an original claim, attorney's fees for services under this chapter on behalf of an employee shall be subject to the following maximum limits:
 - (a) Twenty percent (20%) of the first twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) of the award, fifteen percent (15%) of the next ten thousand dollars ($10,000), and five percent (5%) of the remainder of the award, not to exceed a maximum fee of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000). This fee shall be paid by the employee from the proceeds of the award or settlement.

- (b) Attorney-client employment contracts entered into and signed after July 14, 2000, shall be subject to the conditions of paragraph (a) of this subsection.
- (3) In approving an allowance of attorney's fees, the administrative law judge shall consider the extent, complexity, and quality of services rendered, and in the case of death, the Remarriage Tables of the Dutch Royal Insurance Institute. An attorney's fee may be denied or reduced upon proof of solicitation by the attorney. However, this provision shall not be construed to preclude advertising in conformity with standards prescribed by the Kentucky Supreme Court.
- (4) No attorney's fee in any case involving benefits under this chapter shall be paid until the fee is approved by the administrative law judge, and any contract for the payment of attorney's fees otherwise than as provided in this section shall be void. The motion for approval of an attorney's fee shall be submitted within thirty (30) days following finality of the claim. Except when the attorney's fee is to be paid by the employer or carrier, the attorney's fee shall be paid in one (1) of the following ways:
- (a) The employee may pay the attorney's fee out of his personal funds or from the proceeds of a lump-sum settlement; or
- (b) The administrative law judge, upon request of the employee, may order the payment of the attorney's fee in a lump sum directly to the attorney of record and deduct the attorney's fee from the weekly benefits payable to the employee in equal installments over the duration of the award or until the attorney's fee has been paid, commuting sufficient sums to pay the fee.
- (5) At the commencement of the attorney-client relationship, the attorney shall explain to the employee the methods by which this section provides for the payment of the attorney's fee, and the employee shall select the method in which his attorney's fee is to be paid. His selection and statement that he fully understands the method to be used shall be submitted by his attorney, on a notarized form signed by the employee, at the time the motion for approval of the attorney's fee is submitted. The executive director shall develop the format and content of the form to be used pursuant to this section. The form to be used shall list on its face all options permitted in this section for the payment of an attorney's fees and contain an explanation in nontechnical language of each method.
- (6) The General Assembly declares that by the enactment of KRS 342.316(3), it is the legislative intent to encourage settlement and prompt administrative handling of those claims and thereby reduce expenses to claimants for compensation under the provisions of KRS 342.316, and the administrative law judge shall give due regard to this legislative intent in the handling of uncontested claims and the allowance of attorney's fees therein.
- (7) In a claim that has been reopened pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, an attorney's fee may be awarded by the administrative law judge subject to the limits set forth in subsection (2) of this section. If no additional amount is recovered upon reopening, no attorney's fee shall be awarded. No attorney's fee shall be allowed or approved exceeding the amounts provided in subsection (2)(a) of this section applicable to any additional amount recovered.
- (8) Attorney's fees for representing employers in proceedings under this chapter pursuant to contract with the employer shall be subject to approval of the administrative law judge in the same manner as prescribed for attorney representation of employees. Employer attorney's fees are subject to the limitation of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) maximum fees except that fees for representing employers shall not be dependent upon the result achieved. Employer attorney's fees may be paid on a periodic basis while a claim is adjudicated and the payments need not be approved until the claims resolution process is completed. Fees for legal services in presenting a claim for reimbursement from the Kentucky coal workers' pneumoconiosis fund shall not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000). All such approved fees shall be paid by the employer and in no event shall exceed the amount the employer agreed by contract to pay.
- (9) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (2) and (7) of this section, KRS 342.310, or any other provision of this chapter, if an injured worker prevails in a proceeding brought to enforce medical benefits awarded in an original claim or a reopening under this chapter, attorney fees may be awarded by an administrative law judge not to exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000). In awarding the attorney fees provided in this subsection, the administrative law judge shall consider the factors set forth in subsection (3) of this section. The amount of attorney fees awarded under this subsection shall be exclusive of and in addition to attorney fees awarded pursuant to subsection (2) of this section in an original claim for benefits, attorney fees assessed pursuant to KRS 342.310, or attorney fees assessed or awarded under any other provision of this chapter. Attorney fees awarded under this subsection shall be paid by the employer or the employer's carrier, as applicable.

Section 2. KRS 342.310 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) If any administrative law judge, the board, or any court before whom any proceedings are brought under this chapter determines that such proceedings have been brought, prosecuted, or defended without reasonable ground, he or it may assess the whole cost of the proceedings which shall include actual expenses but not be limited to the following: court costs, travel expenses, deposition costs, physician expenses for attendance fees at depositions, attorney fees, and all other out-of-pocket expenses upon the party who has so brought, prosecuted, or defended them.
- (2) If any administrative law judge, the board, or any court before whom any proceedings are brought under this chapter determines that a party has committed acts in violation of KRS 342.335(1) or (2), that party may be ordered to make restitution for any compensation paid as a result of the commission of such acts.

- (3) Attorney fees assessed or awarded pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be exclusive of and not deducted from the amount of attorney fees payable under Section 1 of this Act.

HB 261, AN ACT relating to natural gas rate stabilization.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 278 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

- (1) A public utility providing natural gas distribution service to a minimum of fifteen thousand (15,000) customers, in its discretion and at any time, may elect to have the terms of this section apply to its rates and charges for gas distribution service, on a prospective basis, by filing a notice of the election with the Public Service Commission. Upon receipt of the notice of the election, the commission shall proceed to make the findings and establish the ongoing procedures required for adjustment in base rates to be made under this section. In carrying out the procedures established by this section with respect to such an election, the commission shall rely upon and utilize the approved rates, charges, revenues, expenses, capital structure, returns, and other matters established in the public utility's most recent general rate proceeding pursuant to KRS 278.190; provided, however, that the most recent such order must have been issued no more than five (5) years prior to the initial election to come under the terms of this section. A public utility may combine an election under this section with the filing of a rate proceeding pursuant to KRS 278.190 and the commission shall include the findings required by this section in its rate orders issued in the KRS 278.190 proceedings, and the election shall remain in effect until the next general rate proceeding.
- (2) The election by a utility to have the terms of this section apply to its rates and charges for gas distribution service, once made, shall remain in effect until the next general rate proceeding pursuant to KRS 278.190 for the public utility, at which time the public utility may then elect to continue the applicability of this section to its rates and charges or elect to opt out of the provisions of this section. The applicant may withdraw its request to come under the terms of this section at any time before the entry of a final order of the commission on the merits of the proceeding in which the election is made or on a petition for rehearing in the proceeding.
- (3) In issuing its order pursuant to this section and in addition to the other requirements of KRS 278.190, if a proceeding pursuant to that section is required:
 - (a) The commission shall specify a range for the utility's cost of equity that includes a band of fifty (50) basis points (0.50 percentage points) below and fifty (50) basis points (0.50 percentage points) above the cost of equity on which rates have been set; and
 - (b) The commission shall separately state the amount of the utility's net plant in service, construction work in progress, accumulated deferred income taxes, inventory, working capital, and other rate base components. It also shall state the utility's depreciation expense, operating and maintenance expense, income taxes, taxes other than income taxes, other components of income for return, revenues, capital structure, cost of debt, overall cost of capital, and earned return on common equity. The figures stated shall be those which the commission has determined to be the appropriate basis on which rates were set in the applicable orders.
- (4) The utility shall file with the commission monitoring reports for each twelve (12)-month period ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year, the filings to be made no later than the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the period. These quarterly monitoring reports shall include the following:
 - (a) The utility's actual net plant in service, construction work in progress, accumulated deferred income taxes, inventory, working capital, and other rate base components. The report shall also show the utility's depreciation expense, operating and maintenance expense, income taxes, taxes other than income taxes, other components of income for return, revenues, capital structure, cost of debt, overall cost of capital, and earned return on common equity;
 - (b) All applicable accounting and pro-forma adjustments which are:
 1. Historically permitted or required by the commission for the utility in question, or for similarly situated utilities;
 2. Authorized by general principles of utility accounting; or
 3. Authorized by accounting letters or orders issued by the commission. This authorization may occur either in a general rate hearing or in any other type of filing or hearing that the commission considers appropriate. However, other parties shall be given sufficient opportunity to review and provide comments on any proposed accounting letter or order issued after the initial order allowing future base rate adjustments pursuant to this section;
 - (c) Pro forma adjustments to annualize for the twelve (12)-month period any rate adjustments imposed pursuant to this section or other events affecting only part of the period covered by the filing so that the annualization is required to show the effects of those events on the utility's earnings going forward; and

- (d) Pro forma or other adjustments required to properly account for atypical, unusual, or nonrecurring events.
- (5) In the monitoring report filed for the twelve (12)-month period ending March 31 of each year, the utility shall provide additional schedules indicating the following revenue calculations:
 - (a) If the utility's earnings exceed the upper end of the range established in the order, the utility shall calculate the reduction in revenue required to lower its return on equity to the midpoint of the range established in the order; or
 - (b) If the utility's earnings are below the lower range established in the order, the utility shall calculate the additional revenue required to increase its return on equity to the midpoint of the range established in the order.
- (6) The utility also shall provide a schedule that specifies changes in its tariff rates required to achieve any indicated change in revenue.
- (7) The proposed rate changes, filed by the utility, shall conform as nearly as practicable with the revenue allocation principles contained in the most recent rate order.
- (8) The commission shall review the monitoring report filed pursuant to this section to determine compliance with its terms. Based upon that review, the commission shall order the utility to make the adjustments to tariff rates necessary to achieve the revenues indicated in this section.
- (9) The procedures contained in this subsection shall apply to monitoring reports related to the quarter ending March 31:
 - (a) The utility shall file the monitoring reports with the commission on or before June 15 and simultaneously shall mail or electronically transmit copies to any interested parties who have requested in writing to receive them;
 - (b) Interested parties shall be allowed until July 15 to file comments in writing to the commission concerning the monitoring report;
 - (c) In cases where the monitoring report indicates that rate adjustments are required, or where it otherwise appears to the commission that an adjustment in rates may be warranted under this section, the commission shall conduct an audit of the monitoring report and specify any changes that the commission determines to be necessary to correct errors in the report or to otherwise bring the report into compliance with this section. The commission's review shall be provided to the utility and made available to all interested parties no later than September 1;
 - (d) Interested parties shall be allowed until September 15 to file written comments with the commission related to the commission's review and shall simultaneously mail or electronically transmit copies of these comments to the utility and to all parties who previously appeared and filed comments;
 - (e) On or before October 15, the commission shall issue an initial order setting forth any changes required in the utility's request to adjust rates under this section. In the absence of such an initial order, the gas rate adjustment contained in the utility's filing shall be considered to be granted as filed;
 - (f) Any gas rate adjustments authorized under the terms of this section shall take effect for all bills rendered on or after the first billing cycle of November of that year.
- (10) Within thirty (30) days of the issuance of an initial order pursuant to subsection (9) of this section, or within thirty (30) days of the failure by the commission to issue an order as required pursuant to this section, any aggrieved party may petition the commission for review of the initial order or failure to issue an order and all interested parties of record shall have a right to be heard at an evidentiary hearing on the matter.
- (11) After conducting the hearing required under this section, the commission shall issue a final order that:
 - (a) Sets forth any changes that are required to the rates approved in the initial order issued under this section;
 - (b) Determines the amount of any overcollection or undercollection by the utility that resulted from collection of the rates authorized in the initial order as compared to the rates authorized in the final order under this section; and
 - (c) Establishes a credit to refund the amount of any overcollection, or a surcharge to collect the amount of any undercollection, that arose during the time that the rates approved in the initial order were collected, and that requires the utility to apply the credit or surcharge until such time as the overcollection or undercollection is remedied.
- (12) The commission shall issue any final order required under this section by April 15 of the year following the year in which the monitoring report was filed. The final order shall make the corrected rates and the credit or surcharge, if any, effective as of the first billing cycle of May of that year.
- (13) The provisions of KRS 278.400, 278.410, and 278.450 concerning rehearing and appeal, respectively, shall apply to the orders issued pursuant to this section.
- (14) The review of initial orders pursuant to KRS 278.410 is limited to issues related to compliance with the terms of this section. Matters determined in orders pursuant to subsection (3) are not subject to review except in full rate proceedings pursuant to KRS 278.190. Any proceedings pursuant to this section are without prejudice to the right of the commission to issue, or any interested party to request issuance of, a rule to show cause why a full rate proceeding should not be initiated, nor does this section limit the right of a utility to file an application pursuant to KRS 278.190 for an adjustment to its rates and charges, nor does it impose the restrictions on filings pursuant to KRS 278.190.

- (15) In the event the commission shall require additional personnel for the purpose of performing its duties under this section, all salaries, benefits, expenses and charges incurred by the commission for these positions shall be borne proportionately by the natural gas utilities regulated pursuant to this section.

The Committee Substitute to HB 261 is as follows:

HB 261, AN ACT relating to natural gas rate stabilization.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

WHEREAS, a general rate proceeding for natural gas utilities in Kentucky has transaction costs for all parties that may be lessened without a loss of accountability under modified rate-setting approaches; and

WHEREAS, when examining rate-making options, it is important to maintain vigorous protection of consumer interests; and

WHEREAS, the declining sales by natural gas utilities to retail ratepayers has caused a loss of recovery on fixed assets, and some exploration of regulatory mechanisms to decouple sales from return on investment in transportation and delivery of natural gas is needed in order to make the utilities whole;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Section 1. There shall be a study conducted of rate structures and rate-setting methodology for natural gas utilities. The study shall be conducted by the Natural Gas Rate Stabilization Task Force of the Legislative Research Commission.

Section 2. The task force membership shall be appointed by the Legislative Research Commission or its co-chairs and shall include:

- (d) A representative of the Kentucky Resources Council;
- (e) A member of the House of Representatives, who shall be co-chair; and
- (f) A member of the Senate, who shall be co-chair.

Final membership of the task force is subject to the consideration and approval of the Legislative Research Commission.

Section 3. The task force shall meet monthly at the call of the chairs, beginning after July 1, 2007.

Section 4. The task force shall examine rate-making policy and consider ways in which utilities may be fairly compensated for natural gas distribution services. The task force shall consider:

- (1) Methods which are not linked directly to sales;
- (2) All aspects of rate-making, including intervention, discovery, burden of proof, appeals, and timelines;
- (3) Costs to all parties of alternative rate-setting approaches; and
- (4) Methods by which the process can be streamlined and made less expensive.

Section 5. The task force shall make a report to the Legislative Research Commission no later than December 1, 2007. The report shall contain recommendations for legislative action, if appropriate.

Section 6. Provisions of this Act notwithstanding, the Legislative Research Commission shall have the authority to alternatively assign the issues identified herein to an interim joint committee or subcommittee thereof, and to designate a study completion date.

HB 521, AN ACT relating to underground petroleum storage tanks.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. KRS 224.60-130 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) The Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet, Department for Environmental Protection, Division of Waste Management, shall:
 - (a) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to administer the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts of the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. In adopting administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks. The division may establish a range of amounts to be paid from the fund, or may base payments on methods such as pay for performance, task order, or firm fixed pricing, which are designed to provide incentives for contractors to more tightly control corrective action costs, and shall establish criteria to be met by persons who contract to perform corrective action to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. The criteria may include the certification of individuals, partnerships, and companies. Criteria shall be established to certify laboratories that contract to perform analytical testing related to the underground storage tank program. Owners and operators shall have all required analytical testing performed by a certified laboratory to be eligible for fund participation. Persons who contract with petroleum storage tank owners or operators shall not be paid more than the amount authorized by the division for reimbursement from the fund for the performance of corrective action. At a minimum, the division shall promulgate administrative regulations that will insure an unobligated balance in the fund adequate to meet financial assurance requirements and corrective action requirements of KRS 224.60-135(2) and (4). If the unobligated balance in the fund is not adequate to meet the requirements of this paragraph, the division shall obligate funds necessary to meet these requirements;
 - (b) Establish by administrative regulation the criteria to be met to be eligible to participate in the financial responsibility and petroleum storage tank accounts and to receive reimbursement from these accounts. The division may establish eligibility criteria for the petroleum storage tank account based upon the financial ability of the petroleum storage tank owner or operator. Owners or operators seeking coverage under the petroleum storage tank account shall file for eligibility and for financial assistance with the division on or before January 15, 2008. To insure cost effectiveness, the division shall promulgate administrative regulations specifying the circumstances under which prior approval of corrective action costs shall be required for those costs to be eligible for reimbursement from the fund. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division may distinguish between types, classes, and ages of petroleum storage tanks and the degree of compliance of the facility with any administrative regulations of the cabinet promulgated pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 or applicable federal regulations;

- (c) Establish a financial responsibility account within the fund which may be used by petroleum storage tank owners and operators to demonstrate financial responsibility as required by administrative regulations of the cabinet or the federal regulations applicable to petroleum storage tanks, consistent with the intent of the General Assembly as set forth in KRS 224.60-120(5). The account shall receive four-tenths of one cent ($0.004) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. To be eligible to use this account to demonstrate compliance with financial responsibility requirements of the cabinet or federal regulations, or to receive reimbursement from this account for taking corrective action and for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage, the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall meet the eligibility requirements established by administrative regulation promulgated by the division;
- (d) Establish a small operator assistance account within the fund which may be used by the division to make or participate in the making of loans, to purchase or participate in the purchase of the loans, which purchase may be from eligible lenders, or to insure loans made by eligible lenders;
- (e) Establish a petroleum storage tank account within the fund to be used to pay the costs of corrective action due to a release from a petroleum storage tank not eligible for reimbursement from the financial responsibility account. Reimbursements of corrective action projects performed under the petroleum storage tank account shall be carried out on or before July 15, 2013. Any corrective action costs incurred after this date that were authorized in a directive letter issued by the cabinet shall not be eligible for reimbursement under the petroleum storage tank account. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall make any expenses for corrective action of a site incurred after July 15, 2013, ineligible for reimbursement, if the owner or operator did not receive a directive letter from the cabinet due to the site being ranked lower in priority and if the expenses are identified as eligible for reimbursement in the cost reimbursement manual. The account shall receive one cent ($0.01) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145. This account shall not be used to compensate third parties for bodily injury and property damage. Within three (3) months after July 15, 2004, the division shall develop a plan to address the payment of claims and completion of corrective action at facilities eligible for reimbursement from this account. The division shall establish a ranking system in accordance with subsection (5) of Section 2 of this Act to be used for the distribution of amounts from this account for the purpose of corrective action. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this section, the division shall, in addition to the requirements set forth in subsection (5) of Section 2 of this Act, consider the financial ability of the petroleum storage tank owner or operator to perform corrective action and the extent of damage caused by a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank;
- (f) Hear complaints brought before the division regarding the payment of claims from the fund in accordance with KRS 224.10-410 to 224.10-470;
- (g) Establish and maintain necessary offices within this state, appoint employees and agents as necessary, and prescribe their duties and compensation;
- (h) Employ, in accordance with the procedures found in KRS 45A.690 to 45A.725 for awarding personal service contracts, a qualified actuary to perform actuarial studies, as directed by the division, for determining an appropriate reserve in the financial responsibility account and the petroleum storage tank account sufficient to satisfy the obligations in each account for all eligible facilities and to satisfy future liabilities and expenses necessary to operate each account. The division shall, by administrative regulation, set the entry level for participation in the fund;
- (i) Authorize expenditures from the fund to carry out the purpose of KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160, including reasonable costs of administering the fund, the procurement of legal services, and the procurement of analytical testing services when necessary to confirm the accuracy of analytical testing results obtained by a petroleum storage tank owner or operator. The expenditures shall be paid from the appropriate account;
- (j) Establish a small operators' tank removal account within the fund to reimburse the reasonable cost of tank system removal for small owners and operators. The account shall not be used when an owner or operator is removing the tank with the intention of replacing or upgrading the tank. In promulgating administrative regulations to carry out this paragraph, the division may distinguish among owners and operators based on income, number of tanks, number of facilities, and types and classes of tanks;
- (k) Establish by administrative regulation the policy, guidelines, and procedures to perform financial audits of any petroleum storage tank owner or operator receiving reimbursement from the fund or any entity contracting or subcontracting to provide corrective action services for facilities eligible for fund reimbursement. Financial audits shall be limited to those files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action performed at a facility where the costs of corrective action have been reimbursed by the fund. Files, records, computer records, receipts, and other documents related to corrective action reimbursed by the fund shall be subject to a financial audit for a period of three (3) years after the date of final reimbursement from the fund. Results of the audits shall be protected from disclosure as allowed by KRS 61.878(1)(c). Financial auditing services may be contracted for or personnel may be employed as needed to implement the requirements of this paragraph;

- (l) Be authorized to enter and inspect any facility intending to seek reimbursement for the cost of corrective action to determine the reasonableness and necessity of the cost of corrective action. The division may collect soil or water samples or require storage tank owners or operators to split samples with the division for analytical testing. Refusal to allow entry and inspection of a facility or refusal to allow the division to collect or split samples shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation;
- (m) Have inspectors on site at all tank system removals. Failure to comply with this provision shall make the facility ineligible for fund participation. A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may request through certified mail that the division schedule an inspector to be present at an upcoming tank removal. If the request is made at least two (2) weeks before the time for the removal and an inspector fails to be present at the time scheduled, the tank removal may proceed without making the facility ineligible for fund participation unless the owner is notified by the division no later than ten (10) days prior to the proposed date that an inspector is not available on the proposed date, in which event a representative of the division shall contact the operator and schedule a new date. If no inspector is present at the rescheduled date, the removal may then proceed without penalty; and
- (n) Establish that the deadline for submission of final reimbursement requests under the petroleum storage tank account is two (2) years after receipt of a no further action letter; and
- (o) Establish by administrative regulation a preapproved advanced clean-up program. The cabinet may apportion no more than three million dollars ($3,000,000) in the financial responsibility account and five million dollars ($5,000,000) in the petroleum storage tank account for reimbursement of preapproved advanced clean-up projects. The program shall allow corrective action on sites eligible for clean-up through the financial assurance account or the petroleum storage tank account that have been ranked lower in prioritization for clean-up. The owner or operator shall obtain written preapproval from the cabinet for the scope of work and corrective action costs. The cabinet may impose a cost-share requirement on the owner or operator of not more than thirty percent (30%) of the total cost of the project. The cabinet may select projects under this paragraph by competitive bidding the cost-share borne by the owner or operator and to assign higher priority to projects which have a contract for sale. The owner or operator shall pay approved contractors directly for corrective action. Expenses incurred by the owner or operator for corrective action under the preapproved plan shall remain eligible for reimbursement under the program. The cabinet may delay the reimbursement of corrective action costs until such time that the cabinet issues directive letters for similarly-ranked sites. Reimbursement of claims for corrective action shall not exceed those in the cost reimbursement manual and corrective action shall conform to a preapproved corrective action plan. The cabinet may negotiate a fixed-price reimbursement to the owner or operator for the site.

The funding and operations of the small operator assistance account and the small operator's tank removal account shall end on July 15, 2008.

- (2) The division may advise the cabinet on the promulgation of administrative regulations concerning petroleum storage tanks.
- (3) The division may sue and be sued in its own name.
- (4) The division may transfer funds from the petroleum storage tank account to the small operator tank removal account as needed to satisfy the obligations, future liabilities, and expenses necessary to operate that account. The division may transfer funds to the financial responsibility account as needed to maintain within that account sufficient funds to demonstrate financial responsibility and to ensure payment of claims as provided in subsection (1)(c) of this section.

Section 2. KRS 224.60-137 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) It is the intent of the General Assembly, when funds are available, that the University of Kentucky update the study completed in July 1995, and recommend amendments to standards for levels of petroleum contamination, including lead and other additives, requiring corrective action to adequately protect human health, safety, and the environment established in administrative regulations promulgated by the cabinet, based on new information or changes in federal law.
- (2) The division shall contract with the University of Kentucky when funds are available.
- (3) The cabinet shall, by administrative regulation, adopt standards for corrective action for a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank. The administrative regulations shall adequately protect human health, safety, and the environment, and may consider the study and any revisions or amendments to it performed for the division, except as necessary to comply with federal law.
- (4) Within ninety (90) days of July 15, 2002, the cabinet shall develop an inventory of facilities eligible for reimbursement from the financial responsibility account and the petroleum storage tank account and information on the current status of each facility within the corrective action process. The cabinet shall update the inventory and the status of the facilities and submit the information quarterly to the Legislative Research Commission.

- (5) The cabinet shall rank in order the site inventory for the purpose of issuing directive letters. Sites participating in the financial responsibility account shall be ranked higher than and be reimbursed before those participating in the petroleum storage tank account. Furthermore, sites that are in the corrective action process for ten (10) years or more and that have not received a letter of no further action shall be given priority in the ranking system over those with less than ten (10) years.

Section 3. KRS 224.60-140 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) There is hereby created the petroleum storage tank environmental assurance fund. The fund shall consist of a financial responsibility account and a petroleum storage tank account. Each account shall be maintained as a separate and distinct interest-bearing account. Interest credited to an account shall be retained in that account. All of the following amounts shall be deposited in the fund:
 - (a) Four-tenths of one cent ($0.004) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145 to the financial responsibility account;
 - (b) One cent ($0.01) from the one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) paid on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state pursuant to KRS 224.60-145 to the petroleum storage tank account;
 - (c) Money appropriated by the General Assembly for deposit in each account;
 - (d) Any money recovered by the fund pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the appropriate account; and
 - (e) Any money collected in the form of penalties levied pursuant to KRS 224.60-155 shall be deposited to the appropriate account.
- (2) Money in the fund, financial responsibility account, and the petroleum storage tank account shall be used by the division for the following purposes:
 - (a) To reimburse petroleum storage tank owners or operators for the costs, expenses, and other obligations incurred for corrective action required by the cabinet to be undertaken as the result of a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank. The cabinet shall develop a cost reimbursement manual for contractors and owners and operators that establishes specific unit costs reimbursable under the program. The cabinet shall reimburse petroleum storage tank owners or operators for the necessary and reasonable costs of the disposal and replacement of impacted soil and other backfill, and for the disposal of impacted pit water, following the removal of contaminated soil and water, within and outside the excavation zone. Reimbursement shall be limited to only those costs, expenses, and other obligations incurred to comply with corrective action requirements established in law or administrative regulation by the cabinet. Additional costs related to compliance with a local program operating under KRS 224.60-105(4) shall be neither reimbursable by the fund nor imposed on the owner or operator. Reimbursement shall not include the costs related to the removal, or actions incidental to the removal, of a tank system except as authorized under KRS 224.60-130(1)(j);
 - (b) For payment of or reimbursement for third-party claims for bodily injury and property damage, related to a facility eligible for participation in the financial responsibility account, which are asserted against a petroleum storage tank owner or operator as a result of a release into the environment from a petroleum storage tank;
 - (c) To pay the reasonable, prorated costs incurred by the division in administering each account; and
 - (d) The cost to operate the small operators' assistance account pursuant to KRS 224.60-130(1)(d), the small operators' tank removal account pursuant to KRS 224.60-130(1)(j), to perform or contract for the performance of financial audits conducted under KRS 224.60-130(1)(k), and to employ sufficient inspectors to carry out the provisions of KRS 224.60-130 and to set forth their duties. These costs shall be prorated to each account.
- (3) The use of the fund shall not exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence for corrective action and one million dollars ($1,000,000) per occurrence for compensating third parties for bodily injury and property damage.
- (4) Money in the fund may be used by the cabinet for costs incurred by the cabinet for corrective action taken pursuant to KRS 224.60-135(2) and (4).
- (5) The fund shall be used to guarantee payment of reasonable costs and expenses to a contractor performing corrective action under contract with a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to entry level amounts payable by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator. Money in the fund shall be obligated to secure the guarantee.
- (6) A petroleum storage tank owner or operator may apply to the division for reimbursement from the fund of costs to perform corrective action, except that the petroleum storage tank owner or operator shall be responsible for and shall not be reimbursed for an amount equal to the entry level into the fund as set pursuant to administrative regulation of the division.
- (7) The division or its designated agent shall issue all decisions made on claims filed pursuant to this section in writing, with notification to all appropriate parties, within ninety (90) days after submission of the claim, unless all parties to the claim agree in writing to an extension of time. The division shall by phone or facsimile transmission immediately notify the claim applicant and its consultant, if applicable, when the claim is determined to be deficient. The notification shall provide sufficient information to allow the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, to begin to correct the deficiency. The division shall then notify the applicant and its consultant, if applicable, by certified mail of the deficiency. The notice shall indicate how many days remain in the ninety (90) day review period from the time of mailing. The review period shall be tolled pending submittal of information responding to the deficiency, but not to exceed thirty (30) days. When the division receives information that corrects the deficiency, or at the end of the thirty (30) day period, the division shall complete the review of the claim within the time remaining in the ninety (90) day review period. Nothing in this section shall be construed as preventing the fund from making partial reimbursement as appropriate. If a final determination or order in a proceeding under KRS 224.10-420 holds that the cabinet wrongfully denied a claim for reimbursement, the owner or operator of a petroleum storage tank or the contractor performing the corrective action may submit for reimbursement, along with the original claim, reasonable and necessary attorney's fees incurred in connection with the proceeding, not to exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000). Nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed to prevent a party to the proceeding from exhausting any administrative or judicial remedies provided under law.

- (8) Except as provided in subsection (9), any costs incurred and payable from the fund for corrective action taken pursuant to KRS 224.60-135(2) shall be recovered by the division from the petroleum storage tank owner or operator which released the petroleum or petroleum products into the environment.
- (9) The liability of a petroleum storage tank owner or operator subject to a cost recovery under this section shall not exceed an amount equal to the entry level into the fund, the division's cost incurred in the cost recovery, and any penalties applied in accordance with KRS 224.60-155. This amount shall include any expenditures made by the petroleum storage tank owner or operator for the release into the environment from the petroleum storage tank that is the subject of the cost of recovery.
- (10) The amount of costs determined pursuant to subsections (8) and (19) of this section shall be recoverable in a civil action. This subsection does not deprive a party of any defense the party may have.
- (11) Money recovered by the division pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the appropriate account.
- (12) Upon motion and sufficient showing by any party, the court shall join to the action any person who may be liable for costs or expenditures recoverable pursuant to this section.
- (13)
 - (a) Any party found liable for any costs or expenditures recoverable under this section who establishes that only a portion of those costs or expenditures are attributable to their actions, shall pay only for that portion.
 - (b) If the trier of fact finds the evidence insufficient to establish each party's portion of costs or expenditures pursuant to subsection (12) of this section, the court shall apportion those costs or expenditures, to the extent practicable according to equitable principles among the defendants.
 - (c) The appropriate account shall pay any portion of the judgment in excess of the aggregate amount of costs or expenditures apportioned under paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection.
- (14)
 - (a) No indemnification, hold harmless, conveyance, or similar agreement shall be effective to transfer any liability for costs recoverable under this section. This subsection shall not bar any agreement to insure, hold harmless, or indemnify a party to the agreement for any costs under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160.
 - (b) The entry of judgment against any party to the action shall not bar any future action by the fund against any other person who is later discovered to be potentially liable for costs paid from the fund.
 - (c) Payment of any claim by the fund pursuant to KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 shall be subject to the state acquiring by subrogation the rights of the claimant to recover those costs of corrective action for which it has compensated the claimant from the person responsible or liable for the release.
- (15) This section shall not be construed as authorizing recovery for costs of corrective action resulting from any release authorized or permitted pursuant to state or federal law.
- (16) The cabinet shall attempt, to the maximum extent practicable, to secure or obtain funds that may be available for corrective actions under federal laws. However, nothing in this subsection shall prevent the cabinet from expending any funds available under KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160 if such federal funds are determined to be unavailable.
- (17) The fund shall not be used for corrective action, reimbursement, or third-party liability resulting from releases from petroleum storage tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used in the operation of a commercial ship or vessel oil tanks used exclusively for storage of fuel used for the purposes of powering locomotives.
- (18)
 - (a) Any person filing a claim for reimbursement from the division shall, prior to filing the claim for reimbursement, ensure full payment of the claims of all vendors and subcontractors who have performed work or supplied materials related to corrective action at an underground storage tank facility, where labor or materials supplied by a vendor or subcontractor form a basis for at least part of the claim for reimbursement.
 - (b) A vendor or subcontractor may waive, in writing, his right to receive full payment before the person files the claim for reimbursement. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment shall also waive, in writing, his right to take legal recourse against the division and the underground storage tank facility owner or operator for nonpayment from a prime contractor for work performed or materials supplied to the prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall acknowledge in the written waiver that his, his heirs', successors', and assigns' sole recourse for the nonpayment of work performed or materials supplied to a prime contractor during corrective action at an underground storage tank facility is to proceed against the prime contractor for whom he performed the work or supplied materials. Any vendor or subcontractor who waives, in writing, his right to full payment prior to the filing of the claim for reimbursement shall release and discharge any liens filed as a result of work performed or materials provided at the underground storage tank facility. Subcontractor and vendor waivers must be made on standard forms furnished by the division. Their signatures must be notarized.

- (c) Unless the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection apply, any person filing a claim for reimbursement from the division shall certify, by affidavit, on standard forms furnished by the division, that all vendors and subcontractors who have performed work or supplied materials related to corrective action at an underground storage tank facility, where labor and materials supplied by a vendor or subcontractor form a basis for at least part of the claim for reimbursement, have been paid in full as of the date of submission of the claim for reimbursement. A single affidavit may be made for each claim for reimbursement, provided, however, that the representations made in the affidavit shall be applied to each vendor or subcontractor individually, and, where false, shall be treated, as to each vendor or subcontractor, as a separate violation for the purpose of applying any criminal statute.
 - (d) Any person with responsibility for administering the division who believes, or has information, that an affidavit submitted pursuant to this subsection contains false or misleading information, or any person with responsibility for administering the division who believes or has information that an application for financial assistance or a claim for reimbursement contains false or misleading information, shall provide that information to the Commonwealth's attorney whose jurisdiction includes the county where the majority of the subject underground storage tank facility is located. That person may additionally provide the information to any other interested prosecutor with jurisdiction to prosecute crimes pertaining to an application for financial assistance or the claim for reimbursement.
- (19) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for reimbursement from the fund, or in any supporting documentation attached thereto, shall be responsible for and shall not be reimbursed for any amounts incurred based upon the false statement, representation, or certification. Any costs incurred and paid from the fund which are based on a false statement, representation, or certification in an application for reimbursement from the fund, or in any supporting documentation attached thereto, shall be recovered by the fund administrators from the person who asserted the false statement, representation, or certification.

Section 4. KRS 224.60-145 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, there is established a petroleum environmental assurance fee to be paid by dealers on each gallon of gasoline and special fuels received in this state.
- (2) All deductions detailed in KRS 138.240(2) and all credits detailed in KRS 138.358 are exempt from the fee. If a dealer has on file, pursuant to KRS Chapter 138, a statement supporting a claimed exemption, an additional statement shall not be required for claiming exemption from the fee.
- (3) The fee shall be reported and paid to the Department of Revenue at the same time and in the same manner as is required for the reporting and payment of the gasoline and special fuels taxes as provided by law.
- (4) The petroleum environmental assurance fee shall be set at one and four-tenths cent ($0.014) for each gallon. Four-tenths of a cent ($0.004) per gallon shall be deposited in the financial responsibility account and one cent ($0.01) shall be deposited in the petroleum storage tank account. This provision shall not be suspended in any executive branch budget bill nor shall any funds contained in the financial responsibility account or the petroleum storage tank account be transferred to the general fund or to the road fund.
- (5) Within thirty (30) days of the close of fiscal year 2001-2002 and each fiscal year thereafter, the state budget director shall review the balance of each account to determine if a surplus exists. "Surplus" means funds in excess of the amounts necessary to satisfy the obligations in each account for all eligible facilities, to satisfy future liabilities and expenses necessary to operate each account, and to maintain an appropriate reserve in the financial responsibility account to demonstrate financial responsibility and compensate for third-party claims. The state budget director shall report the determination to the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue. ~~After a determination that a surplus exists, the surplus shall be transferred to a restricted account and retained until appropriated by the General Assembly.~~
- (6) All provisions of law related to the Department of Revenue's administration and enforcement of the gasoline and special fuels tax and all other powers generally conveyed to the Department of Revenue by the Kentucky Revised Statutes for the assessment and collection of taxes shall apply with regard to the fee levied by KRS 224.60-105 to 224.60-160.
- (7) The Department of Revenue shall refund the fee imposed by KRS 224.60-145(1) to any person who paid the fee provided they are entitled to a refund of motor fuel tax under KRS 138.344 to KRS 138.355 and to any person who paid the fee on transactions exempted under KRS 224.60-145(2).
- (8) Notwithstanding any other provisions of KRS 65.180, 65.182, 68.600 to 68.606, 139.470, 183.165, 224.60-115, 224.60-130, 224.60-137, 224.60-140, 224.60-142, and this section to the contrary, the small operator assistance account and small operator tank removal account established under KRS 224.60-130 shall continue in effect until July 15, 2008, and thereafter until all eligible claims related to tanks registered by that date are resolved, and sufficient money shall be allocated to and maintained in that account to assure prompt payment of all eligible claims, and to provide for removal of tanks for eligible owners and operators as directed by this chapter.

HJR 130, A JOINT RESOLUTION relating to Emergency Action Plans for high and significant hazard dams.

WHEREAS, there exist numerous impoundments in the Commonwealth that are classified as "high" or "significant" hazard structures, the failure of which could pose a hazard to life, or cause serious economic or property loss; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Emergency Management Agency has published "Emergency Action Planning Guidelines for Dams," that defines the need for, and provides guidance for preparation and implementation of Emergency Action Plans (EAPs) for such high or significant hazard impoundments; and

WHEREAS, according to the most recent report of the Federal Management Agency to Congress under the National Dam Safety Program Act, only one percent of state-regulated high and significant hazard potential dams in Kentucky have developed EAPs; and

WHEREAS, since 1994, the development of EAPs has been recommended by the Mine Safety and Health Administration for coal mine waste impoundments; and

WHEREAS, the Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet has enabling authority pursuant to KRS 151.125 to develop, after notice and comment, such administrative regulations as are deemed necessary or useful for the safe construction, enlargement, repair, alteration, maintenance, and operation of dams or reservoirs, and the authority is broad enough to encompass a requirement for development and submission of EAPs to the Division of Water or Division of Mine Reclamation and Enforcement, as applicable under KRS 151.250(3); and

WHEREAS, the protection of life and property and maintenance of an appropriate level of emergency preparedness is in the best interests of the owners of high and significant hazard impounding structures and downstream populations alike;

NOW, THEREFORE,

Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Section 1. The Environmental and Public Protection Cabinet is directed to promulgate, within 90 days of the effective date of this Resolution, regulations requiring development, submission for approval, and implementation of Emergency Action Plans for all high and significant hazard impoundments regulated under KRS Chapters 151 and 350. The regulations shall provide a reasonable timeframe for development and submission of the EAPs, consistent with hazard classification, and shall, to the extent possible, coordinate submission, review, and public notice and comment on EAPs with submission of other permits and certifications by the agency.

SB 47, AN ACT relating to certification of miners.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

SECTION 1. A NEW SECTION OF KRS CHAPTER 351 IS CREATED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

In lieu of an examination prescribed by law or regulation, the board may enter into a reciprocal agreement with another state regarding the certification of miners. The board may, pursuant to a reciprocal agreement, issue to any person holding a certificate issued by another state a certificate permitting him or her to perform similar tasks in the Commonwealth if:

- (1) The board finds that the requirements for certification in the other state are substantially equivalent to those of Kentucky;*
- (2) The person passes only the applicable part of the examination with regard to Kentucky law which is uniquely different from the other state;*

In anticipation of the issuance of the revenue bonds, the cabinet~~board~~ may provide for the issuance at one (1) time, or from time to time, of revenue bond anticipation notes pursuant to the general laws of the state. The principal of and the interest on the revenue bonds or notes shall be payable solely from revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes. Any such notes may be made payable from the proceeds of bonds or renewal notes, or in the event bond or renewal note proceeds are not available, or should the cabinet~~board~~ deem it financially practicable to pay the notes directly from revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes, the notes may be paid from any revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes. Prior to the issuance of the bonds or notes, the cabinet shall submit any proposed issue to the Capital Projects and Bond Oversight Committee for its review and determination in accordance with provisions of KRS 45.810.
 - (b) The revenue bonds or notes of the cabinet shall be dated and may be redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the cabinet~~board~~ at prices and under terms and conditions determined by the cabinet~~board~~. Any bonds or notes shall bear interest at the rate or rates, shall be payable annually or at shorter intervals, and may bear conversion privileges determined by the cabinet~~board~~. The cabinet[board] shall determine the form and manner of execution of the bonds or notes, and shall fix the denomination or denominations and the place or places of payment of principal and interest, which may be any bank or trust company within or without the state. In case any employee or officer of the cabinet[board] whose signature or facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any revenue bonds or notes shall cease to be such officer before the delivery thereof, the signature of the facsimile shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes, the same as if the officer had remained in office until the delivery. At the time of issuance of variable rate revenue bonds, the cabinet[board] may designate individuals or institutions which, in the sole judgment of the cabinet[board], have financial market expertise to serve as agent for the cabinet[board] for establishing and changing from time to time, while the variable rate revenue bonds remain outstanding, the rate of interest to be borne by and the price to be paid for the revenue bonds. The rate-setting procedures and authority of each agent shall be set forth in writing, and may include a formula or an index or indices based upon market factors, and shall be established by the cabinet[board] at the time of issuance of the revenue bonds. If revenue bonds are sold at public, competitive sale, the revenue bonds shall be sold after newspaper advertising conforming to the requirements of KRS Chapter 424 and competitive bids for the sale of the revenue bonds shall be opened and read publicly by the board at a designated place, day and hour, all of which shall be announced in the advertising made relative thereto.
- (d) In its proceedings authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, the cabinet[board] shall fix and determine contractual provisions with the bondholders relating to the receipt, allocation, pledging, and disbursement of revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes, and may enact and determine terms, conditions, and restrictions pursuant to which additional revenue bonds of the cabinet may be authorized and issued from time to time. The proceedings, determinations, and enactments of the cabinet[board] shall specify that the payment of principal of and interest on all cabinet revenue bonds and notes shall constitute a first charge and lien against all revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes before any such revenues are used, applied, and disbursed for any other valid purposes of the cabinet, including the payment of operation and maintenance costs incident to the operation of the cabinet.
- (e) The proceeds of all revenue bonds or notes shall be used solely for the purpose of enabling the cabinet to enter into agreements or interim financing agreements with governmental agencies and private companies, corporations, partnerships, and other entities, to acquire and lease projects to governmental agencies, private companies, corporations, partnerships and other entities, to purchase obligations of governmental agencies issued for economic development projects, to make loans or grants to governmental agencies, private companies, corporations, partnerships, and other such entities for economic development projects, or for any purpose authorized in this chapter. - (f) Prior to the preparation of definitive revenue bonds or notes, the cabinet[board] may, under like restrictions, issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, exchangeable for definitive revenue bonds or notes when the revenue bonds or notes shall have been executed, and are available for delivery. The cabinet[board] shall also provide for the replacement of any revenue bonds or notes that shall have become mutilated or shall have been destroyed or lost. Revenue bonds or notes may be issued under the provisions of this chapter directly by the cabinet[board] without obtaining the consent or acquiescence of any cabinet, division, commission, board, department, or agency of the state other than the Finance and Administration Cabinet, and as provided in KRS 42.420, and without any other proceedings or the happening of any other conditions or things except as specifically required by this chapter and the provisions of the resolution or resolutions of the cabinet[board] authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds or notes.

- (2) The cabinet[board] shall assume all bond issuance and refunding authority, power, duties, and obligations as existed on the effective date of this Act[July 14, 1992], for the Kentucky Economic Development Partnership[Finance Authority, and the Kentucky Rural Economic Development Authority] the ability off ~~any of~~ the foregoing organization[organizations] to issue industrial revenue bonds under KRS Chapter 103; and the ability off ~~any of~~ the foregoing board[authorities] to issue economic development revenue bonds as provided in this chapter. The cabinet[board] shall also have the authority and power to issue revenue bonds for any other economic development activity as set forth in this chapter.

- (3) The cabinet[board] shall for purposes of the Kentucky Revised Statutes be deemed to be the successor issuer for all of the currently issued and outstanding bond issues by the organizations set forth in subsection (2) of this section. The cabinet[board] shall have the authority and the power to reaffirm all existing bond obligations of the organizations in subsection (2) of this section and shall perform all duties, obligations, and requirements as may be necessary and required under the bond documents relating to each and every such issue. The cabinet[board] shall also, in regard to each and every such issue, exercise its authority and power as set forth in this chapter.
- (4) In the discretion of the cabinet[board], any revenue bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this chapter may be secured by a trust indenture by and between the cabinet and corporate trustee which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the Commonwealth. A trust indenture, or the resolution of the cabinet[board] providing for the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, may pledge or assign for the security of the revenue bonds or notes, all or any part of the totality of revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes received and to be received. The trust indenture or resolution of the cabinet[board] may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders which may be reasonable and proper, and not in violation of law, including, but not limited to, covenants and provisions setting forth the duties of the cabinet in relation to the purposes to which revenue bonds and note proceeds may be applied; the disposition or pledging of assets and revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes; and the custody, safeguarding, and application of all such revenues. It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth which may act as depository of the proceeds of revenue bonds, notes, or revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes, to furnish such indemnifying bonds, or to pledge such securities as may be required by a trust indenture or resolution of the cabinet[board]. Any trust indenture or cabinet[board] resolution may set forth the rights and remedies of the bondholders and of the trustee, and may restrict the individual right of action by bondholders, where a trust indenture has been entered into. In addition to the foregoing, any trust indenture or cabinet[board] resolution may contain other provisions which the cabinet[board] determines to be reasonable and proper for the further security of the holders of any revenue bonds or notes. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of a trust indenture or bond proceedings may be treated as a part of the cost of operating the cabinet, and may be paid from revenues pledged or assigned to the payment of the principal of and the interest on revenue bonds or notes, or from any other funds properly available to the cabinet for bond purposes. However, the payment of operational costs from revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes shall, as provided in subsection (1) of this section, be subordinate to the payment of principal of and interest on cabinet revenue bonds or notes from revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes, it being intended that these principal and interest requirements shall be secured by a prior and paramount lien on gross revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes.
- (5) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, any trust indenture or cabinet[board] resolution shall provide that, except to the extent the rights afforded to bondholders by this section shall be enforceable and enforced by a trustee under a trust indenture rather than by the bondholders, any holder of revenue bonds or notes issued by the cabinet or any of the coupons appurtenant thereto, may, either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus, or other proceedings, protect and enforce any and all rights generally arising under the laws of the Commonwealth, or granted under this chapter, or under a trust indenture, or by the resolution of the cabinet[board] authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, and may specifically enforce and compel by mandamus the performance of all duties required by this chapter, or by trust indenture, or cabinet[board] resolution, to be performed by the cabinet or by any officer or employee thereof, including, but not limited to, the prompt and full enforcement of the terms and conditions of all assistance agreements to which the cabinet is a party.
- (6) The cabinet is hereby authorized to provide for the issuance of refunding revenue bonds or notes for the purpose of refunding any revenue bonds or notes then outstanding, whether issued by the cabinet under the provisions of this chapter or one (1) of the agencies, authorities or organizations referenced in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of these revenue bonds or notes, and, if determined advisable by the cabinet[board], for the additional purpose of providing further funds for the carrying out of the proper public and governmental purposes of the cabinet. The issuance and sale of the refunding revenue bonds or notes, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties, and obligations of the cabinet in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this chapter which relate to the issuance of revenue bonds or notes, insofar as these provisions may be applicable.
- (7) Refunding revenue bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged directly for outstanding revenue bonds or notes of the cabinet, and if sold, the proceeds thereof shall be applied, in addition to any other authorized purposes, to the purchase, redemption, or payment of these outstanding revenue bonds or notes. Pending the application of the proceeds of any refunding revenue bonds, with any other available funds, to the payment of the principal, accrued interest, and any redemption premium on the revenue bonds or notes being refunded (and if so provided or permitted in the cabinet[board] resolution authorizing the issuance of the refunding revenue bonds or notes, or in the trust indenture securing the same, to the payment of any interest on the refunding revenue bonds or notes and any expenses in connection with the refunding), the proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of, or obligations the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America which shall mature or which shall be subject to redemption by the holders thereof at the option of such holders not later than the respective dates when the proceeds, together with the interest accruing thereon, will be required for the purposes intended.

- (8) Revenue bonds and notes issued by the cabinet under the provisions of this chapter are hereby declared and deemed to be securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. These obligations of the cabinet are hereby declared and determined to be securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the Commonwealth, for the purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the Commonwealth is now, or may hereafter be, authorized by law.
- (9) Revenue bonds or notes issued by the cabinet under the provisions of this chapter shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof, or a pledge of the faith and credit of the Commonwealth or of any political subdivision thereof; but the bonds shall be payable as to principal and interest solely from revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes provided therefor under the provisions of this chapter. All such revenue bonds or notes shall contain on the face thereof a statement to the effect that neither the Commonwealth nor the cabinet shall be obligated to pay the same, or the interest thereon, except from revenues made available to the cabinet for bond purposes, as defined in this chapter; and that neither the faith and credit, nor the taxing power of the Commonwealth or any political subdivision thereof is pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on such revenue bonds or notes.
- (10) The Commonwealth, for the specific use and benefit of the cabinet, may cause to be submitted to the voters of the state in a manner provided by Sections 49 and 50 of the Constitution of Kentucky, from time to time, propositions for the incurring of state indebtedness represented by general obligation bonds of the Commonwealth, the proceeds of which are to be made available to the cabinet and used and employed by the cabinet for all proper purposes.
- (11) Subject to the provisions of KRS 56.870 to 56.873, the State Property and Buildings Commission or the Kentucky Turnpike Authority may issue bonds for which debt service originates with an appropriation of the General Assembly, and may make the proceeds available to the cabinet for all proper purposes.
- (12) Funds appropriated to the cabinet by the General Assembly, including but not limited to repayments of revolving funds established with appropriations of the General Assembly or established with bond issues for which the debt service, issuance costs, reserve fund requirements, insurance premiums or any other expenditures associated with bond issuance are appropriated by the General Assembly, shall not be commingled with other funds made available to the cabinet and shall only be expended for the purposes specified by the General Assembly when the appropriation is made or as approved in subsequent actions of the General Assembly.

Each beneficiary agency shall execute and deliver to the Commonwealth its written assurances, which shall be binding on the agencies' successors and assigns, guaranteeing that during its estimated useful life, the capital project shall be operated and maintained for public purposes and pledging that no mortgage or other encumbrances shall be placed against any capital project wholly financed out of the fund, except industrial development projects, for the breach of which assurances the Commonwealth shall have right of entry to the capital project and the beneficiary agency, or its successors and assigns, shall forthwith convey the title to the capital project to the Commonwealth. Similar assurances shall be executed and delivered to the Commonwealth by the beneficiary agencies of capital projects financed in part out of the fund and in part from other sources, except that when additional funding is derived from the issuance and sale of revenue bonds or under other statutorily authorized financing methods, to secure the repayment of which funds a statutory mortgage lien is granted in favor of any person or group of persons, the capital project may be encumbered to the extent authorized or required by the law under which the financing method was undertaken; nor shall anything in this section prohibit the encumbrance of any real property located within an industrial park or constituting an industrial site, developed or improved as a capital project under KRS 42.350 and this section, by any person, firm, company, partnership, or corporation to which the property has been conveyed, to obtain financing for the construction upon the property of industrial and commercial buildings. The successor shall have the fees, claims and accounts collected, or the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ may, in its discretion, when said accounts, fees and claims are so delivered to the successor, appoint a person to collect them. If a collector is appointed, the successor shall at once, or when demanded by the collector, deliver to him all accounts, fees and claims uncollected. The successor or collector, as the case may be, shall, every sixty (60) days after receiving the accounts, fees, and claims, report to the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~, under oath, the amount collected thereon, and at the same time pay to the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ the amount so collected, and shall continue to so report for three (3) years, unless the accounts, fees and claims are sooner collected.

- (2) The Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ shall, upon each payment, draw a warrant on the State Treasurer in favor of the person collecting, for an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount so paid in, which shall be the full compensation allowed for the collection.
- (3) If the amount paid to any clerk during his term or incumbency was not sufficient to pay the salaries and office expenses of the clerk, the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ shall, out of the money collected and paid in as provided in subsection (1) of this section, pay to the clerk, or to the person entitled to receive the same, an amount sufficient to supply the deficit due for salaries and expenses, not exceeding seventy-five percent (75%) of the amount of fees accrued during his official term and which have been collected and paid to the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~.

Section 36. KRS 64.480 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) Effective, with respect to the offices of Governor on December 11, 1979, and Lieutenant Governor on the fifth Tuesday following the regular November election in 1975, and with respect to the other offices named in this section on the first Monday in January, 1976, the compensation of the following named officers, payable monthly out of the State Treasury, shall be the sum per annum designated for the respective offices, as follows: Governor, forty-five thousand dollars ($45,000) until December 11, 1981, then fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) until December 13, 1983, and then sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) until January 1, 1985; Lieutenant Governor, twenty-seven thousand nine hundred dollars ($27,900) per annum, plus any compensation received while acting in the place of the Governor; Attorney General, Commissioner of Agriculture, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, and clerk of the Supreme Court of Kentucky elected in November, 1975, as clerk of the Court of Appeals, twenty-seven thousand nine hundred dollars ($27,900).
- (2) In order to equate or adjust the compensation of the Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Commissioner of Agriculture, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, and clerk of the Supreme Court of Kentucky with the purchasing power of the 1949 dollar, the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ of Kentucky shall compute by the second Friday in February of every year, beginning in 1977, the maximum permissible compensation of the officials mentioned in this subsection based precisely upon the consumer price index formula approved in Matthews v. Allen, Kentucky, 360 S.W.2d 139 (1962). Thus the maximum permissible compensation effective for the entire year of 1977 and subsequent years will be the actual compensation to be paid said officials. The year of adjustment will be the particular full calendar year involved.
- (3) It is the intention of the Legislature that the constitutionally permissible adjustment of salaries of these officials be framed around equating current salaries with the purchasing power of the dollar in 1949 when Section 246 of the Constitution of Kentucky was amended. Section 246 of the Constitution of Kentucky, as amended, established a monetary level of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) per annum for said officials. The formula merely effects an adjustment of the constitutional monetary level in terms of the current consumer price index.
- (4) In order to adjust the compensation of the Governor to reflect changes in the purchasing power of the dollar, the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ shall compute by the second Friday in February of every year, beginning in 1985, an adjusted salary of the Governor by multiplying sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) by the increase in the consumer price index during the period from January 1, 1984, to the beginning of the then-current calendar year. The actual compensation paid to the Governor for the entire calendar year of 1985 and subsequent years shall be the adjusted salary.

Section 37. KRS 64.527 is amended to read as follows:

In order to equate the compensation of jailers who do not operate full service jails, constables in counties having an urban-county form of government, justices of the peace, county commissioners, and coroners with the purchasing power of the dollar, the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ shall compute by the second Friday in February of every year the annual increase or decrease in the consumer price index of the preceding year by using 1949 as the base year in accordance with Section 246 of the Constitution of Kentucky which provides that the above elected officials shall be paid at a rate no greater than seven thousand two hundred dollars ($7,200) per annum. The Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~ shall notify the appropriate governing bodies charged by law to fix the compensation of the above elected officials of the annual rate of compensation to which the elected officials are entitled in accordance with the increase or decrease in the consumer price index. Upon notification from the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~, the appropriate governing body may set the annual compensation of the above elected officials at a rate no greater than that stipulated by the Governor's Office for Local Development~~[Department for Local Government]~~.

Section 38. KRS 64.5275 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky hereby finds and determines that county judges/executive,

- (3) The salary schedule for county judges/executive, county clerks, jailers who operate a full service jail, and sheriffs in all counties provides for nine (9) levels of salary based upon the population of the county in the year prior to the election of county officials as determined by the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census's annual estimates. To implement the salary schedule, the Governor's Office for Local Development~~Department for Local Government~~ shall, by November 1 of each year preceding the election of county officials, certify for each county the population group applicable to each county based on the most recent estimates of the United States Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census. For the purposes of this section, the salary schedule for county judges/executive, county clerks, jailers who operate a full service jail, and sheriffs shall remain as determined by the Governor's Office for Local Development~~Department for Local Government~~ pursuant to this section, regardless of changes in the population estimates or the actual census count that may occur during the term for which the official has been elected or appointed. The salary schedule provides four (4) steps for yearly increments within each population group. County officers named in this section shall be paid according to the first step within their population group for the first year or portion thereof they serve in office. Thereafter, each officer, on January 1 of each subsequent year, shall be advanced automatically to the next step in the salary schedule until the maximum salary figure for the population group is reached. Prior to assuming office on the first Monday in January, 1999, or thereafter, any person assuming any of the offices for which the salary is determined by this section must certify to the commissioner of the Governor's Office for Local Development~~Department for Local Government~~ the total number of years, not to exceed four (4) years, that the person has previously served in the office. The Governor's Office for Local Development~~Department for Local Government~~ shall place the officer in the proper step based upon a formula of one (1) incremental step per full calendar year of service:

Each training unit shall be approved and certified by the Governor's Office for Local Development~~{Department for Local Government}~~. No officer shall receive more than one (1) training unit per calendar year nor more than four (4) incentive payments per calendar year. Section 201. KRS 186A.025 is amended to read as follows:

- (1)
 - (a) The Finance and Administration Cabinet shall have full responsibility and authority for day-to-day administration of the automated system described by this chapter; and

- (2) The Commonwealth Office of Technology shall assure, to the extent feasible, twenty-four (24) hour, year-round information support to the Department of Kentucky State Police, and to other law enforcement agencies state and nationwide, regarding vehicles registered and, when required, titled in this state.

Section 202. KRS 186A.055 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Vehicle Regulation, in cooperation with the Department of Kentucky State Police, shall ensure that the automated vehicle registration and titling system provided for by this chapter will be designed, equipped, and operated so that, under normal conditions, the system will withhold production of a certificate of title until the vehicle identification number of a vehicle for which a title is sought, and when present, its license number has been automatically compared against the Law Information Network Kentucky (LINK) and, unless it refuses to permit such an arrangement, the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) computerized listing of vehicles reported stolen, and a "no stolen report" or its equivalent is received.

Section 203. KRS 186A.060 is amended to read as follows:

The Department of Vehicle Regulation is directed to develop, in cooperation with county clerks, auto dealers, and the Department of Revenue, Office of Insurance, and Department of Kentucky State Police, the forms required to record all information pertinent to the initial registration, or titling and taxation, or transfer of registration or title of a vehicle. The Department of Vehicle Regulation shall make every effort to minimize and reduce the amount of paperwork required to apply for, or transfer, a vehicle title. When possible, the title document itself shall be used as the primary form used to effect a transfer of vehicle ownership. When no in-state title exists, then forms shall be designed by the department that require only the appropriate and essential information to effect the application for title. The department shall constantly review the information needs of government agencies and other organizations with the goal of reducing, or eliminating, unnecessary documentation. Information being sought for application for title relevant to, but not limited to, vehicle identification, owner, buyer, usage tax, county clerk or inspector shall be set forth by the cabinet in such a way as to promote flexibility in reaching this goal, except that an applicant for a motor vehicle title shall not be required to provide his or her social security number as part of the application process. The use of an electronic medium shall be employed so that forms can be printed by the automated system. Existing statutory language in this chapter and KRS Chapter 186 pertaining to application, signature, forms, or application transfer record may be construed to be electronic in nature at the discretion of the cabinet as provided for by administrative regulation. Any person who knowingly enters, or attests to the entry of, false or erroneous information in pursuit of a certificate of title shall be guilty of forgery in the second degree.

Section 205. KRS 186A.250 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) The Department of Vehicle Regulation shall suspend or revoke a certificate of title, after giving notice and providing a reasonable opportunity for the holder to be heard, when authorized by any other provision of law, or, if it finds:
 - (a) The certificate of title was fraudulently procured or erroneously issued; or
 - (b) The vehicle has been scrapped, dismantled or destroyed. Suspension or revocation of a certificate of title does not, in itself, affect the validity of a security interest noted on it.
- (2) When the Department of Vehicle Regulation suspends or revokes a certificate of title, the owner or person in possession of it shall, immediately upon receiving notice of the suspension or revocation, mail or deliver the certificate to the Department of Vehicle Regulation.

- (3) The department shall promptly notify the Department of Kentucky State Police of the suspension or revocation of any certificate of title.

The cabinet shall not furnish to any person the accident report of a driver other than himself or herself. This section shall in no way preclude the right of any court of law, law enforcement officer, or attorney representing the individual affected from securing full and complete information concerning the record of that individual.
- (3) Insurance companies issuing motor vehicle policies in the Commonwealth shall be prohibited from raising a policyholder's rates solely because the policyholder has a dependent whose license has been revoked or denied for being academically deficient pursuant to KRS 159.051.

- (2) From the closest telephone available, the same employee shall alert the state building administrator or the person designated in the state building's "Code Adam" plan, who shall then notify the occupants of the state building through the loudspeaker system or through any other fast and effective means of communication that "Code Adam" has been activated;
- (3) The employee shall escort the parent, tutor, or guardian to the main door of the state building to help in identifying the child;
- (4) Persons designated by the administrator shall monitor all state building exits to ascertain that the minor does not leave the state building without the parent, tutor, or guardian. In addition, two (2) or more employees, as may be necessary, shall be assigned to search the parking areas of the state building. This process shall not entail the closing or locking of any door of the state building;
- (5) Any child, or person with a child, leaving the state building shall be asked to go through the main exit previously designated by the administrator. If, once there, the child or person wishes to leave the state building, he or she shall be allowed to do so after it has been determined that the minor who is leaving is not the child being searched for and that the person with the minor is the parent, tutor, or guardian of the child, and the person presents a government-issued photo identification;
- (6) After "Code Adam" has been announced through the state building's loudspeaker system or through any other fast and effective means of communication, the employees shall search throughout the entire state building, and at least two (2) employees, or more as deemed necessary, shall be assigned to each floor to certify that the minor is not present. Employees who are directly serving a member of the public at that time and employees who have been previously excluded by the administrator shall not be compelled to participate in the search;
- (7) If the minor is found unharmed and appears to have been simply lost or missing in the state building, the child shall be immediately taken to the parent, tutor, or guardian;
- (8) If the minor is found in the company of any person other than the child's parent, tutor, or guardian, any reasonable means shall be taken to delay the exit of the child and the person with whom the child was found from the state building until a peace officer arrives, the child and the person with whom the child is found both are properly identified, and the circumstances of the situation are determined;
- (9) If the minor is not found within a ten (10) minute period, the state building administrator shall notify a state or local law enforcement agency that a child is lost or missing and provide the information then known about the lost or missing child. The law enforcement agency shall respond to the scene and shall take control of the incident. The law enforcement agency may request that the local search and rescue coordinator provide additional resources to search for the lost or missing child. The law enforcement agency and the local dispatch center shall take the actions required by KRS 17.450, 17.460, and 39F.180;
- (10) Upon the location of the lost or missing child or the arrival of a peace officer from the law enforcement agency which was notified of the lost or missing child, whichever occurs earlier, the state building administrator shall cause an announcement of the ending of the "Code Adam" by the state building loudspeaker or other fast and effective means of communication; and
- (11) Upon the ending of the "Code Adam," the state building administrator shall prepare three (3) copies of a report of the incident, which shall:

- (7) Provide an annual report to the Governor, the Department of Kentucky State Police, the Legislative Research Commission, and the General Assembly on each "Code Adam" within the Commonwealth during the previous calendar year and the results of each "Code Adam" incident. The annual report shall be a public record and shall not include the name or other identifying information, other than gender and age, of the child; and
- (8) Promulgate administrative regulations necessary for the implementation of the "Code Adam" program as required by KRS 199.013 to 199.010.

- (3) During a certified adoptive or foster home's annual reevaluation, the Cabinet for Health and Family Services may require a background investigation for each adult household member of the certified adoptive or foster home under subsections (1) and (2) of this section.
- (4) The Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall promulgate an administrative regulation to implement this section.

Section 240. KRS 199.473 is amended to read as follows:

- (1) All persons other than a child-placing agency or institution, the department, or persons excepted by KRS 199.470(4) or (5) who wish to place or receive a child shall make written application to the secretary for permission to place or receive a child.
- (2) Prior to the approval of an application to place or receive a child, the fee required pursuant to subsection (13) of this section shall be paid and a home study shall be completed. The purpose of the home study shall be to review the background of the applicant and determine the suitability of the applicant to receive a child, taking into account at all times the best interest of the child for whom application to receive has been made.
- (3)
 - (a) The home study shall be made in accordance with administrative regulations promulgated by the cabinet in accordance with KRS Chapter 13A.
 - (b) The cabinet shall conduct the home study for an applicant whose total gross income is equal to or less than two hundred fifty percent (250%) of the federal poverty level guidelines issued each year by the federal government, unless the applicant submits a written request for the home study to be conducted by a licensed child-placing agency or institution. Upon request, the cabinet shall make information available to an applicant who does not meet the requirements of this paragraph to assist the applicant in obtaining a home study from a licensed child-placing agency approved to provide adoption services.

- (c) A licensed child-placing agency approved to provide adoption services shall conduct the home study for an applicant whose gross total income is more than two hundred fifty percent (250%) of the federal poverty level guidelines issued each year by the federal government.
 - (d) Calculation of family size for this subsection shall include each child requested to be adopted.
 - (e) The portion of the home study pertaining to the home and family background shall be valid for one (1) year following the date of its completion by an adoption worker.
- (4) The adoption worker making the home study shall make a finding in writing recommending either that the application be granted or that the application be denied. The recommendation of the adoption worker shall then be reviewed by the secretary.
- (5) Based on the report and recommendation of the adoption worker making the home study, the secretary shall grant or refuse permission for the applicant to place or receive a child as early as practicable, but, in any case, the decision shall be made within sixty (60) days after the receipt of the application. In reaching a decision, the secretary shall be guided by the ability of the persons wishing to receive the child to give the child a suitable home, and shall at all times consider the best interest of the child from a financial, medical, psychological, and psychiatric standpoint.
- (6) If the application is refused, the secretary shall in general terms furnish in writing the reasons for his or her refusal.
- (7) Any person who seeks temporary custody of a child prior to the secretary's ruling on an application for adoption shall file a petition seeking temporary custody, with a notice of intent to adopt, with the Circuit Court that will have jurisdiction of the adoption proceedings. The clerk of the court shall send a notice of the filing of the petition to the cabinet. A hearing on the petition shall occur no later than seventy-two (72) hours after the filing of the petition, excluding weekends and holidays. Proceedings under this subsection shall be incorporated into the court's adoption file. If the adoption is not finalized within six (6) months of the filing of the petition and notice of intent, the court shall conduct a hearing on the status and custody of the child.
- (8) Upon a finding by the Circuit Court that the child should be placed prior to the secretary's ruling on the application, the Circuit Court may grant the applicant temporary custody of the child pending the decision of the secretary. Temporary custody shall not be granted to an applicant unless a background check, including but not limited to a criminal records check by the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet or the Administrative Office of the Courts and a background check of child abuse and neglect records maintained by the cabinet, has been submitted to and reviewed by the court. The background check required for temporary custody shall be part of the home study required under subsection (2) of this section. If the application is denied by the secretary, the temporary custody order shall be set aside and, upon motion of the cabinet or of the child's parent or parents, the Circuit Court may order the child returned to the biological parent or parents or the child's custody may be awarded to the cabinet, another licensed child-placing agency, or other individuals deemed appropriate by the court. This section shall not be deemed to permit the completion of any adoption proceeding without the approval of the secretary and compliance with KRS 615.030, if required.
- (9) In any case where the cabinet refuses to approve the placement of a child for adoption when requested by the parent or parents of the child, or refuses the request of any person or persons that a child be placed with that person or those persons for adoption, the decision of the secretary in so refusing shall be final unless within ten (10) days after notice of refusal, the biological or proposed adopting parent or parents shall appeal to the Circuit Court of the county in which the adoption is proposed. No placement shall be disapproved on the basis of the religious, ethnic, racial, or interfaith background of the adoptive applicant, if the placement is made with the consent of the parent.
- (10) The cabinet may refuse to approve the placement of a child for adoption if the child's custodial parent is unwilling for the child to be placed for adoption with the proposed adoptive family. The cabinet may approve or deny the placement, in spite of the fact that the custodial parent or parents are unwilling to be interviewed by the cabinet or other approving entity, or if, after diligent efforts have been made, the adoption worker is unable to locate or interview the custodial parent or parents. The cabinet shall be made a party defendant to the appeal. In the hearing of an appeal, the court shall review the findings of the secretary and shall determine if the secretary has acted arbitrarily, unlawfully, or in a manner that constitutes an abuse of discretion.
- (11) If a child who does not fall within the exception provided for in KRS 199.470(4) or (5) is placed or received in a home without the court's review of the background check required under this section or the permission of the secretary for health and family services, or if permission to receive a child has been denied, a representative of the cabinet shall notify in writing or may petition the juvenile session of District Court of the county in which the child is found setting out the facts concerning the child. When the petition has been filed, the court shall take jurisdiction of the child and shall provide for it as it would provide for a dependent, neglected, or abused child under KRS Chapter 620, except that the child may not be placed in the home of the applicants who are to receive the child unless permission to do so is granted by the secretary or the action is ordered by a Kentucky court of competent jurisdiction.
- (12) When either the custodial parent or parents of the child to be placed or the persons wishing to receive the child reside out-of-state; the requirement of KRS 615.030, Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children, shall be met before the cabinet gives approval for the child's placement.

- (13) The secretary of the Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall be paid a nonrefundable fee of two hundred dollars ($200) upon the filing of the written application for permission to place or receive a child. Payment shall be made by certified or cashier's check only. All funds collected under this section shall be deposited in a restricted account, which is hereby created, for the purpose of subsidizing an adoptive parent for suitable care of a special-needs child as authorized in KRS 199.555.
- (14) Nothing in this statute shall be construed to limit the authority of the cabinet or a child-placing institution or agency to determine the proper disposition of a child committed to it by the juvenile session of District Court or the Circuit Court, prior to the filing of an application to place or receive.
